BATTLE IN DOBRUDJA CONTINUES WITH THE SITUATION UNCERTAIN

Bucharest Reports Stubborn Resistance by Teutons South of the Danube Railroad.

FORTS BEING EVACUATED?

Heavy Rains Interfering With Activities of Anglo-French Forces in the Somme Region.

BIG BATTLES IN THE EAST

Both Germans and Russians Are Claiming Success.

Although the Rumanians continue to gain ground against the Austro-Germans at various points in Transylvania, the situation in Dobrudja, which has attained added interest since the crossing of the Danube into Bulgaria by Rumanian forces, remains uncertain. Bucharest says that violent fighting continues all along the line south of the railroad running from Constantza to the Danube, with the Teutonic allies offering stubborn resistance to the Rumanian and Russian forces. Nothing is vouchsafed, however, concerning the troops which invaded Bulgaria.

GERMANS DESTROY BRIDGES

Sofia says that only "several battalions" of Rumanians made their way across the river and "begin reports" the destruction behind them, by German monitors, of the pontoon bridges over which they passed.

An unofficial dispatch from Rome asserts that Field Marshal von Mackensen has ordered the evacuation of the Dobrudja fortresses of Silistria and Turtukal, recently captured by the Teutonic allies, in the fear of their being enveloped by the Rumanians.

Heavy rains are interfering with the activities of the British and French armies in the Somme region of France, but nevertheless Paris records the capture of an important trench north of Rapaucourt and the taking of additional prisoners, while London says the fighting at Eaucourt l'Abbaye is proceeding satisfactorily.

VIOLENT FIGHTING IN EAST

Violent fighting has been in progress in Russia, west of Lutzk, and in Galicia in the region of the Zlota Lipa river. In the latter region, according to Petrograd, neither the Russians nor the Teutons have been able to gain any marked advantage.

West of Lutzk, according to Petrograd, the Russians made advances, but Berlin reports that all attacks here were repulsed, the Russians suffering exceptionally heavy casualties. In the attacks, says Berlin, which were preceded by terrific bombardments, the Russian guard made 17 unsuccessful onslaughts and another division made 12.

BULGARIANS WITHDRAWN

As regards the fighting in Macedonia, Sofia admits that the heavy artillery fire of the Serbs in the region of Kaimakolan Height caused the Bulgarians to withdraw to the Moglenia valley in order to avoid unnecessary losses, but asserts that Entente attacks elsewhere along the front were repulsed.

Berlin records an advance by the Austro-Germans against the British who recently crossed the Struma north east of Lake Thessalon, and according to advices from Paris say the Bulgarians have abandoned several positions in the Starovo Grobo and Brod river regions and that four towns northeast of Florina in Greece have been occupied by the Entente Allies.

GAINS FOR ITALIANS

In Albania, according to an Athens dispatch, the Italian military authorities have occupied Argyro Castro, having ordered the Greek military officials there to evacuate the town.

Except for the capture by the Italians of two lofty peaks held by the Austrians and a continuation of the heavy bombardment by the Austrians of the Carso front in the hands of the Italians, there has been little activity in the Austro-Italian theatre.

GREEK SITUATION

The Greek situation continues to develop. King Constantine, according to an Athens dispatch, has in his hands the resignations of the members of the cabinet except those of the premier and the foreign minister. It is probable that the new cabinet will contain several supporters of former Premier Venizelos, who is in favor of Greece's entry into the war on the side of the Entente Allies.

VILLA'S SAINTS DAY

Many Think He May Attempt to Carry Out Threats Aoidy.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 3.—Tomorrow is Francisco Villa's saint's day and many Mexicans in Juarez and El Paso believe that he will carry out his reported threat to take Parral, Chihuahua City and Juarez on St. Francisco Day. Military officers in Juarez, however, are not taking any extra precautions, as there are no Villa followers in the border zone, they say.

ALL GUARDSMEN TO SERVE ON BORDER

Those Remaining in Virginia, Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Will Go Soon.

SECRETARY BAKER'S ORDER

The Two Engineer Companies, A and B, Now at Camp Gleason, are the Only Troops Now Mobilized in This State.

Washington, Oct. 3.—All National Guard units of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee, now in mobilization camps, will be sent to the border "in the immediate future," Secretary Baker announced today. These and other state troops who have not yet seen service on the border will take the places of National Guard organizations ordered to their home stations.

The Secretary's statement was the first official announcement that the War Department had adopted a policy calling for border service for all the National Guardmen before they are mustered out. It had been understood for several weeks, however, that this course would be pursued. Department officials expect the last of the units to be moving toward the border within the next week or ten days.

A War Department announcement issued this evening listed among the troops in mobilization camps in Southern states on October 1:

North Carolina—Companies A and B, engineers.

South Carolina—Company A engineers.

Tennessee—Troops C and D, cavalry.

Virginia—First Cavalry, cavalry; Company A engineers, field company signal corps and field hospital No. 1.

The Department's announcement says that the official report of "muster in" of the troops named in North Carolina and South Carolina and Tennessee is not a "matter of record," but the report says these troops will be sent to the border.

ALL SOUTH CAROLINA TROOPS ARE ALREADY ON BORDER

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 3.—It was said tonight that all South Carolina militia units mobilized under the President's call of June 18 last already had gone to the border, company A, engineers, mentioned in the Washington statement as still being having gone to El Paso August 19 last, with the second infantry, South Carolina National Guard.

MILK SUPPLY DECREASING

Thorough investigation of the situation in New York to be made.

New York, Oct. 3.—Thorough investigation of the situation in the dairyman's league and the milk distributors of New York, which resulted today in a shortage of nearly 50 per cent in the city's normal supply, will be undertaken at once by a commission to be appointed by Mayor Mitchell, it was announced late today.

According to the department of health, the shipments today were from 5 to 8 per cent less than yesterday, with an increase of about 50 per cent in the amount from Pennsylvania.

COUNT BERNSTORFF TO VISIT THE PRESIDENT

Purpose of His Visit is Not Fully Established.

Is Understood, However, the Ambassador Will Present Letter From the Emperor Regarding Relief For Poland.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 3.—Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States, will call on President Wilson here next Monday, it was announced tonight before Mr. Wilson started on his western trip at 8:30 o'clock. It is understood the ambassador will present to Mr. Wilson a personal letter from the German Emperor replying to autograph messages sent by the President to the rulers of several European nations, urging that a method be agreed upon for getting relief supplies to starving people in Poland.

The contemplated visit here of Count von Bernstorff revived reports of possible moves for peace in Europe or of a resumption of Germany's submarine warfare. Ambassador Gerard now is on his way home from Berlin. So far as it has been established tonight, however, the coming of the German ambassador to Shadow Lawn has no connection with either of those reports.

DUKES GIVE $50,000

Part of Fund to Be Used in Landscape Garden at Trinity.

Durham, N. C., Oct. 3.—At the celebration of Benefactors' Day at Trinity college here today, announcement was made of gifts totaling $50,000 for the college from J. B. and B. N. Duke. The laying out of a landscape garden is one of the purposes to which the fund will be devoted.

WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES BEGINS NEXT SATURDAY ON BRAVES' FIELD AT BOSTON

Brooklyn Nationals Will Meet the Boston Americans to Decide Championship—National Commission, in Session in New York Yesterday, Arranged Details for Forthcoming Series—Second Game to Be Played at Boston Monday.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Boston American League club and the Brooklyn Nationals will meet in the 1916 world's series, the opening game of which will be played on Braves' field at Boston next Saturday, October 7th. The teams will remain in Boston over Sunday and play the second game of the series there on Monday, October 10th, weather permitting, after which they will return to Brooklyn for two games at Ebbets' field on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 10 and 11. The fifth and sixth games, if necessary, will be played on Thursday, October 12, and Friday, October 13, at Boston and Brooklyn, respectively. Should a seventh game be necessary to decide the series, the location of the contest will be decided by the toss of a coin as in past years.

All these details were arranged at a meeting of the National Baseball Commission in this city this afternoon, but the pennant winner in the National League was not known at the time the commission adjourned and the same dates that applied to Brooklyn also applied to the Philadelphia Nationals. Before night-fall, however, the victory of Brooklyn over New York and the double defeat administered to the Philadelphia Nationals by the Boston club of the same league, clinched the pennant for the Brooklyn players and placed them in the position of National League standard bearers in the annual joust against the American League champions.

The meeting of the National Commission was attended by almost the same amount of uncertainty as marked the final hours of the National League pennant struggle. Originally it was intended to hold the conference here today, but later it was decided to defer it until tomorrow. President John K. Tener, of the National League, and Chairman Herrmann, of the Commission, arrived in the city late last night, but President B. R. Johnson, of the American League, was not expected until tomorrow. When he appeared upon the scene early this morning, there was a hurried consultation, at which it was decided to hold the meeting as originally scheduled.

President C. H. Ebbets, of the Brooklyn club; W. F. Baker, of the Philadelphia club, of the National League, whose teams were still fighting for the pennant, and President J. J. Lammie, of the Boston Americans, were hurriedly summoned and the commission went into session shortly before noon.

Tentative arrangements already had been made covering the possibilities of either Philadelphia or Brooklyn in the National League being the opponents of the Boston Americans and the schedule of world's series game was arranged after a short discussion. President Lammie suggested that the series be opened at the park of the Boston Nationals where the American League will stage all their games, owing to its immense seating capacity, instead of deciding the place of the initial games by the customary toss of a coin. This plan was adopted in view of the fact that both the Brooklyn and Philadelphia clubs would require several days in which to install additional seats and boxes to accommodate the (Continued on Page Two.)

FOODSTUFFS SOAR TO HIGHER LEVELS

Flour is Now Selling at Prices That Have Not Been Known Since the Civil War.

THE FARMER IS PROFITING

Prices for Farm Products Increased 9.3 Per Cent During August Alone. Enormous Advance Made Within Past Year.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Marked increase in the cost of living is shown in the rising tendency of prices of foodstuffs on October 1, reports of which are just being received at the Department of Agriculture from the principal markets of the country.

With flour selling at prices higher than at any time since the Civil War, due principally to the shortage of the wheat crop this year. Beans show an increase of more than 10 per cent over a year ago, because of the short crop. Onions are more than 50 per cent higher and cabbages more than 40 per cent higher.

Prices paid to producers of farm products increased 9.3 per cent during August, while during the last eight months these prices have shown a decrease of about 2.1 per cent during that month. September began with the index figures of these prices 21.9 per cent higher than they were a year ago. But was selling about 13 per cent higher than a year ago. The price was one cent a pound higher than it had been in the last eight years at this time of the year. Eggs were selling five cents a dozen higher than last year, but were lower for the period than in several of the last eight years.

Potatoes were selling 116 per cent higher than a year ago.

Hogs were selling 25 per cent higher than a year ago; beef cattle more than 7 per cent; veal calves more than 10 per cent higher; sheep more than 8 per cent higher and lambs more than 20 per cent higher.

STORM OFF GEORGIA

Washington, Oct. 3.—Reports to the Weather Bureau tonight indicated that the South Atlantic disturbance noted Monday night now apparently is being driven off the Georgia coast, attended by northerly gales. As yet, however, there have been only strong winds on the coast. Storm warnings have been continued from Fort Monroe to Charleston and extended to Savannah.

HEAVY GOLD IMPORTS

Amount Received for Eight Months Was $384,450,000.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Gold imported into the United States from January 4 to September 23 amounted to $384,450,000, the Federal Reserve Board announced today, while in the same period the exports were $23,000,000. More than $102,000,000 of the amount imported this year was in foreign coin and about $246,000,000 in bullion.

THEY SHAKE HANDS WITHOUT A SMILE

Taft and Roosevelt Greet Each Other With Only the Formal "How Do You Do?"

WAS ALL OVER IN MOMENT

Both Make Brief Addresses at the Union League Club's Reception Given in Honor of Charles E. Hughes.

New York, Oct. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft clapped hands for a moment tonight at the Union League Club's reception to Charles E. Hughes.

"How do you do?" said Mr. Taft.

"How do you do?" Mr. Roosevelt replied.

Each bowed and Mr. Roosevelt passed on to shake hands with other guests, leaving Mr. Taft to greet those who followed.

A few moments later Mr. Roosevelt took his place in the receiving line. He stood between Mr. Hughes and Chauncey M. Depew. Just the other side of Mr. Depew stood Mr. Taft.

Thus, standing in the same receiving line, they shook hands with the hundreds of club members and their guests who filed past during the evening. They did not meet again, however, or exchange any other word than the common places of greeting.

"We shook hands," Mr. Taft said afterward, "just like any gentleman would shake hands."

Colonel Roosevelt declined to comment on the meeting.

After the hand shaking was over and the library was cleared, Ellhu Root, president of the club, escorted Mr. Hughes through a flag-draped corridor to a small platform in the main club room. Beneath a life size picture of Abraham Lincoln, Mr. Root again introduced the nominee and Mr. Hughes made a brief address.

Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Taft were called upon by Mr. Root and each responded with a short talk.

Tonight's reception was arranged some time ago and public announcement was made last night. For a fraction of a second their eyes met and each looked into the other's unsmiling face. Then Mr. Taft extended his hand and Colonel Roosevelt took it.

There were other handshakes of a formal nature. Among them were the meetings between George Perkins and Mr. Taft and between Roosevelt and Boies Penrose, Senator from Pennsylvania. As in the case of the greeting between Taft and Roosevelt, the places of meeting were exchanged.

FUNERAL OF LATE SENATOR

CLARKE AT LITTLE ROCK.

Simplicity Marked Services in First Methodist Church.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 3.—Simplicity marked the funeral services for the late United States Senator James P. Clarke here today. The services were conducted by the Rev. Forney Hutchinson, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, South, of which the late Senator had been a member.

Only five members of Congress from out of the state were able to reach Little Rock in time for the services. These were Senators Vardaman, of Mississippi; Randall, of Louisiana, and Saulsbury, of Delaware, and Representatives Rayburn, of Texas, and Collier, of Mississippi.

ATLANTA CAR STRIKE

Service on Reduced Schedules Was Given Last Night.

Atlanta, Oct. 3.—Local and suburban street cars, which were sent to their barns Sunday and again Monday night, because of alleged danger from sympathizers with striking motormen and conductors, were operated tonight and it was announced that service would be continued on reduced schedules until the usual hours of stopping for the night.

Later, the company discontinued service on several lines in the residential districts, alleging that rocks were being thrown at their crews. Suburban cars to East Point and Hapeville were run only as far as Fort McPherson, it being claimed that logs had been piled on the tracks.

ASK RESTRICTIONS TO KEEP WHEAT CROP IN THIS COUNTRY

Ohio Bakers Send Series of Resolutions to the President.

Columbus, O., Oct. 3.—President Wilson will receive today from the special committee of Ohio bakers a series of resolutions passed at a meeting here today, asking him to use the powers of his office, or if necessary, to ask Congress for an embargo, tax or other restricting influence, which will conserve the present wheat crop of the United States to Americans. The resolutions are in line with similar efforts in New York, Philadelphia, Indiana, Michigan and other city and state meetings of bakers throughout the country.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—Philadelphia's last chance for the National League pennant this year faded when Boston twice defeated Moran's team today, the scores being 6 to 3 and 6 to 1, while Brooklyn was winning from New York. Bad fielding was responsible for the home team's defeat in each game.

The teams put up a hard battle in the opening contest until two men were out in the second inning. Then, with Philadelphia leading by 2 to 1 and Rudolph on second base, Stock fumbled Fitzpatrick's grounder and Paekert also fumbled the ball, Rudolph scoring. Doubles by Konetsky and Magee and a wild throw by Byrne followed and Boston got five runs in the inning. Rudolph held Philadelphia safe in the closing innings.

In the second game errors cost both of the runs made off Mayer, while Bender was hit hard in the eighth inning, when the visitors piled up four runs and clinched the victory. Tyler held the home team down to five scattered hits, one of which was a home run drive by Whitely.

Brooklyn, Oct. 3.—Brooklyn clinched the National League pennant today by defeating New York 9 to 4, while Philadelphia, the runner-up, was losing two games to Boston. Brooklyn's victory gave the leaders an advantage of two and a half games. They can lose their two remaining games and Philadelphia can win the two yet to be played without changing the position of Brooklyn.

The game was a heavy hitting contest. Poor fielding by Pitcher S. Smith at the start gave New York a three-run lead. Brooklyn came back in the third and bunched five hits off Benton and Perritt for four runs. Pfeffer relieved Smith in the fourth and, although New York tied the score in the fifth, he held his hitters in check while Brooklyn's batters were pounding Perritt and George Smith.

The batting and fielding Mowrey were features of the victory of the new champions. Robertson led in the batting for New York, with four hits in as many times at bat.

DR. DILLARD AND PRESIDENT FEW MAKE SPEECHES AT TRINITY

Annual Celebration of Benefactors' Day Observed Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Trinity College, Oct. 3.—At the conclusion of the address of Dr. James H. Dillard, well known educator, here, this evening, in which he declared Trinity "one of the colleges which is recognized as a real force in moulding the public sentiment of the South, and stands among those who look forward rather than backward," President William F. Few reviewed the life of the college during its twenty-five years in Durham, making interesting statements concerning its rapid growth and some interesting announcements concerning recent gifts and benefactions to the institution.

The occasion was Benefactors' Day, which is annually observed October 3 with a suspension of all college duties during the day and exercises in the evening intended to give appropriate public recognition to the generosity of all who have made contributions to the college and to cultivate the spirit of benevolence.

At the time the college was moved from Randolph county, in 1891, it had only nine teachers and officers, eight buildings, 123 students, an endowment of $20,000, a bonded debt of $40,000, an unimproved campus, and total assets of less than $250,000. Today it has 61 teachers and officers, 26 buildings, 447 students, an endowment of more than $1,500,000, no bonded debt, a most beautiful campus, and total assets of $2,440,000.

McGraw, Disgusted Leaves the Field

MANAGER OF GIANTS RETIRED TO CLUB HOUSE IN FIFTH INNING BECAUSE OF POOR WORK OF PLAYERS.

Brooklyn, Oct. 3.—Declaring that he was disgusted with the playing of his team, Manager John J. McGraw, of the New York National League Club left the playing field at Ebbets' Field in the fifth inning of today's game between Brooklyn and New York, and retired to the club house. Manager McGraw did not appear on the field after that inning.

In a statement after the game, in which Brooklyn clinched the National League pennant, McGraw asserted that although he did not believe any of the players tried deliberately to favor Brooklyn, they had refused to obey orders and had disregarded signals. "When Ferritt wound up with a man on first base, allowing the runner to steal second, I lost my patience and left the bench," declared the New York leader. "I have worked too hard this year to stand around and watch playing like that and I refuse to be connected with it."

After receiving congratulations over Brooklyn's victory Charles H. Ebbets, president of the club, announced that he was ready to retire from baseball whenever a purchaser for his club appeared "with the price." President Ebbets has been connected with the Brooklyn club for 34 years as secretary and president. He declared that as he is 56 years old, he has earned a rest and desires to retire. He asserted that the McKeever interests in the Brooklyn club also were for sale. Ebbets said his ambition to win another pennant had been realized and that he was ready to transfer Brooklyn to other hands.

Manager Wilbert Robinson and his players held a celebration over their victory in the club house after the game. All the players shook hands with each other and Robinson was forced to make a speech. He thanked his players for their efforts, and predicted success in the approaching series against Boston. The baseball writers of Brooklyn announced they would give a dinner to the Brooklyn players and management on October 10th. Brooklyn fans have arranged a parade in honor of the team when it departs for Boston on Friday.

WORLD'S SERIES BEGINS ON SATURDAY, AT BOSTON

President Baker proposed that the series begin on Monday, October 9, but this was vetoed by the commission as being an unnecessary delay, as was a suggestion that the play start Friday, October 6, on the grounds that the National League winner required a day or two of rest before being flung into the world's series against the Boston Red Sox, who clinched their league pennant two days ago. The commission also dismissed the proposal to alternate the games between the contending cities, but decided that in case more than four games were necessary, the fifth and sixth would alternate, with the place of the seventh decided by the flipping of a coin.

The selection of the umpires for the series was delayed until after the outcome of the National League race was definitely known. It is probable that the two American and two National League arbiters, who will work in the series for a fee of $1,000 each, will be named tomorrow, now Brooklyn has won the right to represent the National League in the baseball classic of the year.

J. G. Taylor-Spink, of St. Louis, was named as the official scorer for the National Commission and the Baseball Writers' Association chapters of Boston and Brooklyn were given the right to nominate one member in each city to act as second official scorer in his home city. The visiting scores will not act in an official capacity while away from home.

After naming the list of eligible players of the three clubs and announcing that the commission would meet for further business at 3 P. M. in Boston, Friday, October 6, the conference adjourned to attend the games in which Brooklyn captured the National League pennant, after one of the closest and most exciting races in the history of the senior league.

The commission announced the eligible players as follows: Boston—W. F. Carrigan, manager; Agnew, Barry, Cady, Foster, Gainer, Ganser, Grinnell, Hobbins, Hooper, Janvyn, Jones, Leonard, Lewis, Mays, McNally, Ruth, Scott, Shore, Shorten, Thomas, Wagner, Walker, Walsh and Wyckoff.

Brooklyn—W. Robinson, manager; Appleton, Cuthaw, Coombs, Cheney, Daubert, Dell, Getz, Johnston, Miller, Mails, Myers, Merkle, Marquard, Meyers, Mowrey, Olson, O'Mara, Pfeffer, Rucker, Smith, Stengel, Wheat.

KINNEY SAYS NEWSPAPER MADE INCORRECT REPORT

Denies Saying Treasurer Lacy Had Lost $75,000 of State's Funds.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3.—Frank Linney, Republican candidate for governor, is out in a lengthy card in which he says that the newspaper that reported him as charging that Treasurer Lacy had lost $75,000 to the State through bad bookkeeping was in error and that he had made no such charge, but that he did undertake to show by the State Board of Internal Improvements report that bad bookkeeping had lost track of such moneys for a time. The stock of the Raleigh department store was disposed of through receiver's sale this afternoon to the Raleigh Stock Purchasing Co., which is understood to represent the interests of B. S. Finger, who assigned the stock. It brought $7,850.

Boston, Oct. 3.—The Boston Americans closed the season today, losing to Philadelphia 5 to 3 and 7 to 5. Supposedly running up for the world's series, Red Sox pitchers found their offerings freely hit by the lowly Athletics. The Athletics batted in bunches in both games and there was little brilliant fielding by either team.

LITTLE GIRL KIDNAPPED FOUR YEARS AGO, RETURNED

Was Found in a Canadian Home Where She Had Been Left by a Woman.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—A hunt for Lorine Merriman, nine years old, kidnapped from the home of her aunt, Mrs. Luella Overman, here, four years ago, which extended twice across the continent, ended today when the girl was returned to Indianapolis from Grand Forks, B. C. Hundreds of dollars were spent in the search. Advertisements for Watheline Winters, of New Castle, Ind., who has been missing since 1913, led to the finding of the Merriman child in the Canadian home. The child had been left in Canada by a woman who for a time paid for her board. The woman is supposed to have been the girl's mother.

POLITICS IN ONSLOW ARE WARMING UP

Hood, Cooper and Ward Make Democratic Speeches.

Both State and National Issues Discussed Before Voters at Jacksonville and Richlands—Candidates and Records.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Jacksonville, N. C., Oct. 3.—Before 200 Onslow county citizens, Congressman George E. Hood, of Goldsboro, and Hon. G. V. Cooper, of Kinston, today made addresses. Hon. T. E. Gilman, of the local bar, introduced Mr. Cooper, the first speaker, in a few well chosen words. Mr. Cooper, stated that he needed no introduction, he believed, to Onslow people and that he was sure they need none to him; they were great folks, and he came here on every occasion possible. The speaker took for his text National issues, and after a few minutes he was given the G. O. P. The Republicans declared, are not attacking Wilson's internal policies but are basing their claims upon his foreign policy. Mr. Cooper explained this to the satisfaction of his listeners. He termed Hughes as the man who never does things, but bumps about and after something has been done, gives you the "I told you so." Mr. Cooper was loudly applauded.

Hon. J. Frank Wooten then introduced Congressman Hood, who for over an hour talked most along State affairs. Mr. Hood declared that while in Congress it had been his pleasure to in his feeble way try to uphold the hands of the President. He also endeavored to look after the interest of each and every citizen of his district. He declared that the policy of the Republicans in this State as well as the Nation was to make votes by making misrepresentations. He referred to the charge against State Treasurer Lacy and explained this thoroughly, declaring that the auditor who audited the books for the Republicans was an experienced Yankee. He then referred to that part of the Republican record of the past which had to do with the shortage of funds and the subsequent conviction and sentence of a Republican official. He declared that certainly now with North Carolina at the head of the Nation in State and with an earnest in the interest of the people in the State, there was no reason for a Republican vote.

Hood is greatly admired here, and his speech was given close attention and applause at its completion.

The speech of "Hot Stuff" Ward at Richlands Saturday afternoon must be referred to. Journeying from this town to that place by auto, he was introduced to the Richlands citizens by Hon. R. Duffy. From the jump Mr. Ward went right after the Republicans, and to the large audience there for over an hour and a half he expounded the cause of Democracy. Doubtless it has not been spoken since Aycock spoke there in the memorable red shirt campaign. It was a great speech and a vote making speech. During his speech Mr. Ward stated that he had heard that there were certain Republicans who wanted a debate. He had not been authorized to challenge anyone and did not have the right, but that if there was any Republican who just had to have a debate, if he would just drop Hallett Ward, Washington, N. C. a line to that effect he would guarantee him one. Mr. Ward declared that he did not intend this as a challenge but that he would then feel that he had a right to use his personal right. It was a great speech and no wonder the name "Hot Stuff."

WOODMEN UNVEIL MONUMENT TO THE LATE J. M. JOWERS

Eastern Baptist Association Meets This Week—Six Boys Caught.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, Oct. 3.—Olive Camp, No. 508, Woodmen of the World, unveiled a monument in the local cemetery Sunday afternoon to the late J. M. Jowers, member of the camp. Several from the Goldsboro camp were present and participated in the unveiling exercises. Hon. George E. Hood delivered the principal address on the occasion. Notwithstanding the chilly atmosphere, quite a large number witnessed the solemn ceremony.

The Eastern Baptist association will convene in its twenty-third annual session with the Calypso Baptist church Tuesday of this week. The association is composed of 39 churches, located in Duplin, southern Wayne and eastern Sampson counties, each church being represented at the association by at least two delegates.

Take Iron to Put Color and Youth in the Cheeks, Says Doctor

Greatest of All Strength and Blood Builders—Often Makes Delicate Nervous Folks 200 Per Cent. Stronger in Two Weeks' Time.

New York, N. Y.—What you need to paint roses on your cheeks and put the spring time of life in your step is not cosmetics and patent medicines, but plenty of rich pure red blood in your arteries. Iron is the greatest of all strength and blood builders. A celebrated Cambridge physician and scientist has proved conclusively that the absence of iron in the soil sets up faulty nutrition even in plants, and gives them a sickly, pale and feeble appearance. A sickly, pale or sickly looking plant like plants trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. Thousands die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver or heart trouble, when the real and true cause which started this disease was nothing more or less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from

WILMINGTON CAFE OWNER HEARD IN INDORSING TANLAC

Had Spent Two Hundred Dollars For Other Treatments Without Gaining a Particle. Feels Fine Now.

"I am surely satisfied with what two bottles of Tanlac has done for me and I am back for two more bottles," said Philip Karas, proprietor of the Olympia Cafe, 307 North Front street, this city, to the Tanlac Man, at the Bellamy Drug Store.

"Before taking it, I suffered from indigestion and a rundown of the general system. My sleep was poor and my appetite was very bad. I felt sluggish upon awakening in the morning and could feel myself going back right along. I had spent two hundred dollars on other medicines and treatments without gaining a particle. Tanlac helped other people in Wilmington, and I saw no reason why I shouldn't give it a trial. And, it certainly has helped me, too. I am full of energy, now; my appetite is splendid; I can digest any food, and I feel so much relieved that I gratefully recommend Tanlac to all people suffering from indigestion."

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington exclusively at the Bellamy Drug Store; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgaw, C. L. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes & Co.; Supply, G. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Morehead, W. L. Southall; Palsen, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.—day.

They were taken to Goldsboro this morning.

WHO ARE SPANISH-AMERICANS? More Appropriate Designation for People Called Latin-Americans.

(Bailey Willis, in the National Geographic Magazine.)

The people who are developing the lands of South America, and in that development are themselves evolving special characters and new racial types, are those whom we loosely call Latin-Americans. Their language is of the family of the Latin tongues, and that fact fixes its place in the public mind the relationship of the people among European nations; but that is a very superficial estimate. If we call them Spanish-Americans, and we consider what the Spaniards' origin is, we shall come nearer knowing our neighbors.

The ancient Spaniard was a Celt before he was conquered by Rome, and as a Celt he is represented today by the still distant group of the Basques. The greater part of the Celtic tribes were less resistant. Five hundred years of Roman government and two hundred of domination by the Visigoths, followed by eight centuries of Moorish influence, conclusively and unconsciously wrought changes in the people, evolving the special Spanish type.

In studying America we should not forget that the Moors maintained their civilization in Spain up to the date of the discovery of America and influenced the character of the Spanish conquerors. They represented the Arabic civilization which maintained learning and science during the dark ages of Europe, and their daring courage, their impetuosity, and their individualistic spirit have been transmitted to their remotest descendants.

A further fact relating to the origin of the Spanish-American is the mixing of the invaders and the aborigines in the colonial population. Their writers tell us that the Indians who died under the tyranny of the Spanish masters bequeathed to those masters half-breed sons and daughters to perpetuate the race.

Thus there sprang into existence the Spanish-American race, child of the Celt, the Roman, the Goth, the Moor, and the American Indian. His Spanish fathers were themselves variously characterized, the austere Basques, the arrogant Castilian, the impetuous Extremaduran, the facile and graceful Andalusian. And the Indian mothers were as unlike the gentle Aztecs of Peru, the fierce Guarani of Paraguay, the sanguinary Incas of the Amazon, the indolent and independent Araucanian of Chile.

ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And that after many have had some cases of doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate, or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron. If you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than the disease. Many athlete or prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the arena, while many another has gone down to ignominious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. On the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed by J. Frank Jarman.

ARTIST FEELS YOUNG AT 52

Darius Cobb is the Dean of Boston Painters.

(From the Boston Post.)

"I haven't the sense of age," said Darius Cobb, and Boston's veteran artist emphasized the remark with a vigorous gesture; when a Post reporter congratulated him on being 52 years young, Mr. Cobb doesn't like it. He admits that he often gives way in the afternoon to a nap and feels the signs of old age.

"I planted them myself, and I take care of them," said he. "I got up every morning and work in the garden. Then I often walk a mile up to my brother's house and walk back to the station to take the train in town. I haven't the sense of age. I do not feel a single part of my body breaking down and I do not wear glasses except occasionally when I read a long time. Then I do it to rest my eyes. I have saved a lot of work to do until I was in my 50s."

"I have some sketches I have made in the Old North End. They could not be made now. I am going to work up some paintings from them. I have spent most of my life on my portrait of Christ. That took nearly 40 years. But I had a feeling that I was going to live to be 80 years old, and have saved a lot of work to do until then. I had an uncle who lived to be 107. I believe that I shall live that long myself. I feel younger than I did a year ago."

"I always walk down the four flights to my studio. Sometimes I walk up. I can't get used to riding down in an elevator. I run down from Park Street church to the South Station. It is no exertion. I like it."

"I trained for this when I was a boy. I had a feeling that I was going to live a long time, and I trained for it. My twin brother and I trained on hardback and milk. The result was that when we went to war he and I were the only ones in the company who did not have to train ourselves into good condition. I have always lived simply, eaten plain food and used no stimulants."

TEXAS HAS HOPES

Expects Great Rush of Winter Tourists This Year.

(From Interview in Washington Post.)

"San Antonio will be the tourist center of the United States this winter as a result of the unprecedented travel to that city this summer," remarked Percy Tyrrell, of the Texas metropolis, at the Ebblitt.

"The assembling of practically all the United States army on the border is one of the reasons why such heavy travel to San Antonio is expected this winter. Thousands of militiamen who have made Texas their residence the last few months have told their families and friends about the beauty of the state. Thus they attract thousands of others."

"Folk who come to Texas for the first time are happily surprised at the pleasures there are in store for them. The winter climate is generally acclaimed one of the most pleasant to be found in the South. The temperature is mild, grass is green all the year round, flowers are ever in bloom and snow is unknown."

"For further folk, the hospitable San Antonians have prepared many conveniences in aid to pleasure seekers. For the golf-loving there are five splendid 18-hole golf courses. There is ample facility for enjoying tennis, automobile drives, fishing, boating and hunting. San Antonio boasts of 500 miles of smooth paved and macadamized streets and roadways in and about the city."

"Medina Lake, a few miles from the city, is the largest inland lake in the South, and fishing is abundant. A night's travel distant is the Gulf of Mexico. In nearby fields and forests are found wild game. Poultry birds and deer make hunting the king of sports."

SHIRTS OF ANKLE LENGTH.

This Edict for Cool Weather Fashions Has Been Issued.

(From a New York Letter.)

Longer and less flaring skirts are indicated by the fall fashions, says the semi-annual report of the Silk Association of America. They will be of ankle length, frequently made of pleats, and requiring as much or more material than the last season, is the prediction.

Paris fashions, it is asserted, have not favored the extremely short, almost freaky skirts which have been worn here this year.

The wearing of these skirts unquestionably has increased the demand for silk hosiery, both fancy and plain, says the report of the experts.

TOP OF THE MORNING.

The day is short and the task is great, and the workmen are sluggish, and the reward is much, and

—SELECTED.

We can't imagine where flap-jacks got their reputation.

When others do it, we only make a laughing matter of it when we say "it can't be done."

Republicans only imagine they do things when they pass tariff laws to enable trusts to do the people.

A Kansas woman recently paid $50 for a husband, but she may come to the conclusion that a cheap skate is not a bargain.

If Americans wish to re-elect President Wilson on the 7th of November they surely will have to get together in this campaign.

Well, of course, it is significant that while Judge Hughes is hunting up his audiences, President Wilson's audiences go to Shadow Lawn to hear the true word expounded.

A Judge has decided that a man's wife is entitled to the last word, whether it is in an argument or a simple matter of accusation. The judge no doubt based his opinion upon experience.

Some writer has made the discovery that George Washington loved several ladies before he finally got married.
Why, of course, but he didn't have to tell Lady Washington all his secrets.
No doubt he often remembered several things about himself, but he always had something else to do than to tell things on himself.

The white man and the red man are now at peace, but they are not the same white man and the same red man who used to fight because the red man feared the alien race which insisted on squattling in the domain of the red man. The red man thought it was his country, but the red man now has quit imagining anything of the kind.

The Hon. Frank A. Linney, the Republican candidate for Governor, re-charges the North Carolina Democracy with a whole lot of things, but the Democracy has never been put on trial and convicted like the Hon. Frank's party whose only record is that which he hates to face. We wish it did have a decent record so it would not have to shrink from its long-standing disgrace. It is awful hard for the Republican party to live down the only kind of record it ever made in North Carolina.

Judge Hughes' speeches are so humdrum and vary so little in the line of criticism in which he indulges, that when one of his speeches is read a reader knows that it is no use to read a re-hash of it in the Judge's subsequent deliveries. For that reason, the great newspapers devote little space to his speeches, as they are repetitions of speeches already published. Nevertheless, President Wilson's speeches are considered as front page features for the press. He says things and he always says new things that people like to read.

The Raleigh News and Observer keeps on saying that the Republicans object to Democratic references to the infamous Reconstruction record in the days of Reconstruction and Fusion.
Why, of course, Republicans hate to be constantly reminded of records which make them ashamed of their party. The worst part of it is that the Republican party has no other record but the two that are hobgoblins to even Republicans. Men do great injustice to themselves to ally themselves with a party with nothing but disastrous records to be.

A FENDER RAISED JERSEY.

In the Extension Farm News, sent out by the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, one finds the picture of a beautiful Jersey heifer raised by experiment on the State Test Farm in Pender county. The test has been followed up by Mr. W. H.
Eaton and the pretty Carolina raised thoroughbred is the result of three years of experimental work. Careful account of the cost of raising calves was kept in order to ascertain whether it pays farmers to raise their own pure bred stock than to purchase grade cows for milking.

The particular heifer illustrated, at 18 months of age, weighs 525 pounds.
The total cost of raising her to 18 months was $34.30 and every article of feed given to her was charged at the full market price, even the grazing having been charged up at $1 a month.
The test farm calf up to the time of the report had consumed 379 pounds of milk, 2,355 pounds of skim milk, 725 pounds of grain, 1,857 pounds of corn silage, 117 pounds of corn stover and 583 pounds of cottonseed hulls. The heifer is robust and her cost was $34.30, compared with a selling price of between $50 and $75, which the test farm authorities can get for her any time they desire to sell.

The test has been made with a considerable number of heifer calves and Mr. Eaton announces that if $52.06 is invested in raising the pure bred heifer calf to 18 months of age, the time of freshing, the investment will pay 22 per cent more than the same amount invested in the purchase of a grade cow. The conclusion is that it pays to raise rather than to buy pure breeds, even at the highest prices required for the upkeep of the animal. The test enables Mr. Eaton to announce that heifers can be grown up to the time of freshing for $52.06, and then the young cow begins to pay money to her owner or is ready to be sold at a given profit.

On the Edgcombe Test Farm, Mr.
Earl Hosteler has been experimenting with the winter feeding of beef calves, to determine if cottonseed meal at $40 a ton could be fed profitably. He demonstrated that it is profitable according to his formula and he gives the comparative cost of taking care of them on two different ration formulas. The most profitable test shows that beef calves can be carried through the winter for $4.90 a head. Cotton seed meal and corn silage were used, and the two lots of calves showed weights as follows: No. 1, 240 pounds; No. 2, 221 pounds. At eight cents for prime beef cattle the largest calves would sell on the hoof at $27.20 a head up to the time they are ready for pasturing in the spring for greater weight.

Winter grazing is not mentioned in
Mr. Hosteler's report, but his test, we take it, was to show the economy of caring for beef calves at the highest cost for the kind of feed utilized.
Regular stock raisers who plant winter cover crops could easily cut down the final cost of raising prime beef cattle. Pastures are necessary and it has been demonstrated here that the greatest profits are secured on farms which produce practically all the forage and feed used for stock.

FAIRBANKS AT OUTS WITH HUGHES

It is whispered in political circles that the Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, the Republican candidate for vice president, is "at outs" with the Hon.
Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee for president. Whether they are actually at outs or not, their views on more than one question are at variance. They widely differ as to President Wilson's Mexican policy and their views apparently are irreconcilable.
For instance, nearly three years ago when the President was endeavoring to handle the delicate Mexican question in order to avoid armed intervention, Mr. Fairbanks said:

"It is not the hour for either little politics or sensational journalism. The clamor of the 'fingers' should not be allowed to drown the voice of rational, deliberate statismanship. It is a pretty safe rule, when we come to deal with grave international problems, to put our faith in the President of the United States and follow where he may lead.
He speaks for the country when we come to deal with international affairs.
The President of the United States is a safe guide, than sensationalists and soldiers of fortune who come to the surface whenever international contriversies arise."

The Star commented at the time upon the above, deliverance of Mr.
Fairbanks and commended him for speaking as a patriot and not as a partisan like Roosevelt and others who have spoken disloyally at a time when the President was acting for the whole country and needed the united support of all parties like President McKinley had during his handling of the Cuban-Spanish question. However,
Mr. Fairbanks has expressed himself in even plainer terms than those words of his quoted above. For instance, he declared:

"I have no doubt that the disturbances in Mexico during the last few years have been due to a greater or less degree to an effort on the part of ambitious, cunning men to force intervention and possible annexation to the United States. If our speculators in Mexico suffer pecuniary loss as a result of recurring revolutions that is a matter for future consideration, when stable government and peace are fully established in that country. It is no warrant for shedding the blood of Americans."

Partisan consideration did not move Mr. Fairbanks to speak that way and if what he said then is still his view he and Mr. Hughes are not at all agreed. In fact, Mr. Fairbanks has never, to our knowledge, changed his view. Possibly that accounts for the impression that he and his running mate are at outs.

Anyhow, Mr. Hughes is at variance with Mr. Fairbanks on the Mexican question and he is at variance with the Republican majority in Congress about the Adamson bill to avert the railway trainmen's strike.

WILSON'S WAY OF DOMINATING

President Wilson is the dominating
some time ago and now the Republicans have found it out, too, for they insist that Wilson dominates Congress and dominates the government. However, that is no argument. It is only one of the facts in the case. Another one of the facts is that Wilson is the dominant figure in this campaign, and that is what is gripping the Republicans.

Of course, Wilson dominates—just dominates sagely, and masterfully and by intellectual force, and by the power of wisdom. The people would not want that kind of President dominated by Congressmen, who vote themselves 20 cents mileage to and from their homes, for traveling expenses. We don't suppose anybody is going to vote against Wilson for dominating a mileage Congress. What the President ought to do is to assure the people that he will continue to dominate wisely in their interest, and go on achieving things like those of the past three years of his wonderful administration. The people certainly have no reason to object to Wilson's administration—in their behalf. He is unpopular with special interest and privilege freebooters, because he does not discriminate to their advantage.

"Wilson dominates." Well, who is disputing it? He dominates in the right way, but that is what makes the nose of a Republican politician look like it is but of joint clear down to the tip.

A HUGHES BOOMERANG

Senator LaFollette, Republican, is putting up an able and unanswerable defense of the Adamson act which averted the railway trainmen's strike.
Judge Hughes has attacked the act as a piece of cowardly legislation, so the Wisconsin Senator and the majority of Republicans in Congress are compelled to defend themselves from the imputations cast upon them by their own candidate for president. While Hughes has been trying to put Wilson in a hole for settling the railroad strike, the Republicans who supported the President are forced to defend the Wilson way, else get in bad themselves. Rocking the boat with Wilson, is rocking the boat with the Republican majority that was in the boat with him.

We mention this as evidence of the fact that Hughes was so unwise as to mistake a boomerang for a national issue. In order to save themselves from the imputations which Hughes casts at random, Republican congressmen have to make speeches in self-defense, showing that Hughes is wrong and they are right.

A house divided against itself is in a tottering condition. Some time we have friends who get us in bad like Hughes does his friends as well as himself. He is pulling the Republican house down on himself, and thinks he is doing something for himself. He isn't doing much for himself along that line.

This is not the only boomerang that Hughes has thrown during his campaign. He does not appear to reap so much advantage on the stump as he did upon the bench.

While the Republicans were in charge of the State Treasury in North Carolina in Fusion days, as much as $17,000 of the State's funds were swiped. Every time they mention "antiquated bookkeeping" by a Democratic State Treasurer, who nevertheless accounts for all the State's money at all times, they have reason to recollect that it is integrity which protects the State from being robbed of money to the extent of $17,000 or more. The man in the office and not the bookkeeping in the office is what the people want. They don't care to pay taxes if they are to be pocketed by some dishonest fellow who monkeys around in a position of public trust.

Some people insist that religion is involved in the campaign. If the campaign has any religion of its own it has a poor way of showing it. The Republican campaign is one of vituperation against President Wilson because he adopted policies in the interest of humanity. The President has his own religion but he keeps it from getting mixed up in such a thing as politics.
Religion could not divide on politics if it wanted to do so. A religion which thinks much of itself will never get into politics. Religion is a matter of conscience, while politics hasn't got enough to make religion want to mix up with it.

FALSE (?) PROSPERITY

Mr. Fairbanks says the prosperity that the country at large is enjoying, is a "false prosperity." What does he mean? I suppose he means the prosperity that put the money in the pocket of the people, and not into the coffers of Wall Street and the trusts, is a "false prosperity." The people believe that this is the true prosperity.

IN APPRECIATION

"Greater works than these shall ye do."

These words come to the mind of the writer when he contemplates the life and work of the institution known to our city—known to our State and far beyond our State—as the Boys' Brigade. The announcement that this organization has grown to its maturity, and now leaves its home and sets out into the world, is, of course, a sad
one. It is a shock to the public, it is as if it were tearing out the heartstrings of the Brigade's beloved commander, and it is useless to attempt to express the feelings of one, much less all of the members of the institution.
As one who has grown up in the institution from his "kid" days, and whose high honor it was to serve as manager of the institution for one year, the undersigned desires to acknowledge the "greater works" as is already exemplified in the numerous works being done by members of the organization in the Sunday schools and churches of our city.

At the meeting last night it seemed at first as if we were attending our own funeral, but a different and greater light broke in upon us. I feel that I am privileged to speak for all of the members when I say I am sure all our feelings can be embodied
in the prayer below. It embodies, at the same time, our gratitude for having had in our lives the influence of
the wonderful personality of Colonel Taylor and our gratitude for the unspeakable associations and blessings of the Boys' Brigade. It is a prayer offered by a grateful Presbyterian minister, whom it is my privilege to hear in one of our largest Southern cities. And thus we would leave our home:

"And, in closing, as the founder and commander of the Boys' Brigade, I asked it to our home, from which we now go out, having grown to manhood, I would leave that home with a prayer of thanksgiving in my heart. And I feel that I am privileged to speak for
in the prayer below. It embodies, at
the same time, our gratitude for having had in our lives the influence of
the wonderful personality of Colonel Taylor and our gratitude for the un-
speakable associations and blessings of
the Boys' Brigade. It is a prayer offered by a grateful Presbyterian minister, whom it is my privilege to
hear in one of our largest Southern
home:

"I thank Thee, O Lord, for my mother; for the tenderness with which she carried me; for the courage with which she bore me; for the unselfishness with which she nursed me; for the devotion with which she watched me; for the smiles, and the kisses, and the caresses with which she warmed me; for the prayers with which she blessed me; for the sureness with which she told me and showed me the nature of God; I thank Thee, O Lord, for my mother."

H. K. KING.

MR. FERGUS EXPLAINS

To the Editor of The Star:
I want to thoroughly understand that in all my discussions in regard to the use of purse seines and the destruction of the fish industry, there is no intention on my part of trying to interfere or to criticize menhaden fisheries who use their seines for the catching of menhaden and no other fish. The men-haden fisheries that have been using their purse seines otherwise are the fisheries around Morehead and that vicinity. For some years there has been a law which made it a fine of $500 to catch edible fish in purse seines for any purpose in the counties of Carteret, Onslow, Pender and New Hanover, and there is a law also prohibiting them from being caught with purse seines for any purpose in the waters of Brunswick county. My purpose in agitating the purse sein question is not only to show how destructive the purse sein is on the edible fish, but also to show the next Legislature how unwise it was to give the fish commissioners more power than the Supreme Court of North Carolina has. The Supreme Court can only annul a law when it comes in conflict with the constitution, but the fish commissioners have been given the power to destroy, if they see fit, every law that the Legislature for years has been erecting around the fish industry for its protection, as follows:

At the first meeting which was held in Wilmington the year that the Fish Commission was formed, Mr. Webb, one of the commissioners from Carteret county, after I had in a speech before commissioners, warning them of the fearful effect of the purse seines on the fish industry, arose in the meeting and acknowledged the fearful effect of the purse seines on the fish industry by boasting of the fact that he was the first man in his county that had a law enacted that prohibited them from catching edible fish. Immediately after the meeting was held in Wilmington, the fish commissioners held a meeting at Morehead City, and at the request of the menhaden factory owners or the fishermen who fished their purse seines, they destroyed the law which said that purse seines could not catch edible fish within three miles of the beach for any purpose whatsoever by allowing them to catch mullets within a thousand yards of the beach in any way. Before that, they had been violating the law with impunity. Last season and this season they have been destroying the mullet industry with the consent of the fish commissioners, which shows that they will be necessary for the next Legislature to take the power of destroying the fish laws away from the fish commissioners, and let them be a machinery only to enforce the law that the Legislature enacts.

Now, in regard to the shrimp industry, that is being carried on in Brunswick county, I feel that it ought to be encouraged instead of being hampered in any way. The kind of shrimp that they are catching is what is known as a prawn, and they are caught out at sea by dragging a net on the bottom of the bed of the ocean, and if no one fished for them in that way you would never know that they were passing along the coast, and while they may catch a few small bottom fish, it is impossible for them to catch any mullets, as a mullet will run away so fast from any net of that description, that they will never catch up with them, and you can only catch a mullet by surrounding him with a net, or with a net that will kill them, and it's utterly impossible to catch them with a net being dragged behind them unless you find them nearly dead in the sound or creeks from the cold.

Yours respectfully,
D. J. FERGUS.

CURRENT COMMENT.

All that is needed to have the people continue the Democracy in power in the State and in the Nation is to examine the record, and see how greatly the State and the country have prospered. It is a great thing to have food abundance in an administration, and legiti-mate business has confidence in Democratic administration.—Raleigh News and Observer.

There has been concern for a long time in the United States about the rising cost of meat products. Long before the European war began the complaint was heard, and the government at one time sought to fix maximum prices upon the meat packers, despite the fact that the improvements made by these concerns helped to reduce the cost of supplying the consumer. Under modern methods a use is found for every part of the hog except the squeal, and this maxim of the meat packers is carried out in every branch of the packing business. The sale of by-products is now the chief source of income of the packing business. The trouble is that the cattle raisers have not been able to keep pace with the growing population. While in former years there was an ample supply of cattle, the supply has been diminishing in comparison with the demand. The foreign trade department of the National City Bank, after a careful investigation, has found that the European war demands have been encroaching seriously upon the meat supply of the United States, which fact, if it does not explain the high prices that prevailed before the war, at least will help to explain the higher prices which now prevail. Despite marked increase in the number of food animals in the United States, exports of meat have trebled since the beginning of the war and of beef alone exports are greater by tenfold. The United States is helping to feed the enormous armies in Europe. It is a condition that cannot be regulated by statute law. The situation is governed purely by the law of supply and demand, and it looks as though American consumers would have to grin and bear it.—Washington Post.

THE MUDDLE ABOUT MULLET.

To the Editor of The Star:
There is no difference between Mr.
Stevens, of Southport, and myself in regard to the mullet question so far as the shrimp nets are concerned. My statement in regard to the destruction of young mullets by shrimp seines had reference to the seines used in the sounds and creeks, while Mr. Stevens refers to the trolling seines used at sea. Of course, these trolling seines do not destroy any small mullets, while the seines used in the sounds and creeks are a certain source of destruction to the young fish. These haul seines which are used in the sounds and creeks do their working during the summer months, the time when the young mullets begin to move and the mullet is not the only edible fish that is destroyed by these seines.

Yours very truly,
J. B. HEWLETT,
Fish Inspector.

Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.
This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

WOODROW WILSON CLUB PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night
at Court House.

Reorganization Effected and Committee Appointed—More Than $2,000 Subscribed for Fund—Addresses by Speakers.

The test of party fealty imposed by a threatening northeast storm ensured for the meeting of New Hanover Democrats at the Court House last night an attendance of earnest men who will, without a doubt, do things for the National ticket between this date and the general election in November.

In spite of the storm, the attendance was much larger than expected; the Woodrow Wilson Club was re-organized under the most favorable auspices after a number of inspiring addresses had been made, and before the meeting was over, contributions of exactly $2,242 to the National campaign fund were announced. A general committee of more than 150 prominent New Hanover Democrats was named to have the active campaign in hand from now until November and the club will see to it that not only does the county contribute its usual quota of votes in November, but between now and that date they will see that everybody is given an opportunity of contributing something to the success of the ticket in doubtful states. Officers of the club elected under the re-organization are as follows:

President—W. A. McGirt.
Vice President—D. H. Howes.
Secretary—C. C. Cashwell, Esq.
Treasurer—J. E. Thompson.
Executive Committee—The officers named above and Mr. Thos. E. Cooper. The meeting was called to order by Mr. McGirt, who referred to the election of 1912, when the Woodrow Wilson Club was organized. Then, he said, the club was furthering the candidature of one who was somewhat a stranger; now Wilson people are called upon to come to the aid of one who has been tried and tested and found true to the people's interests. He asked the pleasure of the meeting and Sherman-elect, Geo. C. Jackson moved to go into re-organization by the election of officers, naming Mr. McGirt as chairman. He was enthusiastically elected by many who recalled his fine direction of the work for Wilson four years ago. The other officers named above were nominated and elected in their order by acclamation with the addition of the executive committee.

President McGirt suggested the appointment of a live committee of 150 Democrats of the county to solicit subscriptions for the campaign and to urge voters to register and to go to the polls and vote in November. A nominating committee to prepare a list of such Democrats of the county as follows: Messrs. R. L. Harker, J. A. Orrell, E. B. Johnson, W. A. Furlong and Cyrus D. Hogue, Esq. While the committee retired to make up the list, by direction of the president, Secretary Cashwell read the following message to the club from Mr. Henry Morgenthau, treasurer of the National Campaign Committee, which was received with enthusiasm:

"New York, Oct. 3, 1916.
"W. A. McGirt, Chairman Woodrow Wilson Club, Wilmington, N. C.
"Please convey to the membership of your club assurances of our appreciation of the campaign that is under way in Wilmington. We recall the splendid way in which your club responded to our appeals four years ago, and now that we can depend on your best efforts this year, we are confident that our needs are greater. Wilson will win if such Democrats as you help bear the burden of the fight. We must not falter; we must make success doubly sure. Bear this in mind and your endeavors, and give us the best possible support in Wilmington.

While the nominating committee was still out, Mr. McGirt referred to the presence of a distinguished Wilson Democrat in the audience in the person of Mr. Hugh MacRae, treasurer of the State Finance Committee, whom he asked to address the meeting. Mr. MacRae was received with applause. Mr. MacRae briefly reviewed the work of the State Finance Committee up to this time and said that it had been very successful. The enthusiasm, he said, was very marked and he accounted for this change from Wilson's record for constructive legislation. Approximately $20,000 has been sent from the State so far and North Carolina's share will be found in excess of what it was four years ago before the campaign is ended. He had every reason to expect great things from the work in the State during the coming few weeks.

Mr. MacRae told why his name was supporting Wilson, enumerating Edison, Morgenthau, Ford and others. It was because these are men of broad vision who can appreciate the National needs. He told why the Republican campaign managers can get all the money they need for reasons well known to everybody. Wilson in carrying out his constructive legislation has necessarily trod upon the toes of some of the large interests and he must in his efforts for re-election depend upon the people who have been the great beneficiaries of his administration. He said that the legislative record of Mr. Wilson would go down in history as unparalleled. No law would approach in importance the Federal Reserve bank act, placing capital beyond the control of Wall Street and in reach of the people. Next would be the Rural Credits law, giving the farmers as the basis of all prosperity a recognized credit standing. He read a most interesting and convincing interview by a trained newspaper man with Mr. Henry Morgenthau, giving the details of the man's reasons for supporting Wilson and outlining the fight that is before the Democratic party and the common people.

Mr. MacRae closed by speaking of the local benefits received from a Democratic administration and told why it was to the interest of North Carolina to see that no change is made now. Upon the conclusion of his address the nominating committee came in and recommended the appointment of the following committee to further the National campaign work in New Hanover: The Committee Named—H. E. Bonitz, John R. Harby, James H. Cowan, Geo. Traak, K. W. Jewell, John Haas, S. J. Ellis, W. W. Love, E. M. Holley, Louis E. Hall, R. A. Burnett, Graham Kenan, Messrs. Harjas, (Continued on Page Ten.)

MARKET STREET STORE IS BEING REMODELED

Book and Stationer Firm To Extend Its Business

Extensive Improvements Are Now Being Made to Building on Market Street Occupied by the C. W. Yates Company.

Work was started this week on remodeling the store building of the C. W. Yates Company, booksellers and stationers, No. 117 Market street, which will cost when completed more than $5,000. The entire interior will be renovated throughout, steam heating apparatus will be installed, an elevator will be put in, a new roof placed on the structure, while the rear of the edifice will be extended back to the alley.

The mezzanine floor will be extended in the rear so as to include the entire building and the offices of the concern placed on this floor, leaving the entire first floor for the extensive retail business of this well known firm. Directly under the offices in the rear will be built a sound proof room for the phonograph department. This will allow those interested in phonographs to hear the records played without disturbing other shoppers.

The mezzanine floor will continue to be used for storing packages goods as at present. The offices will be placed in the rear and there will also be a cloak room for lady customers. The picture framing department and the office supplies, now on the first floor, will be moved to the second floor of the building, which will be used for the headquarters of the wholesale department as will the third floor. The installation of an elevator will make each floor readily accessible and will add greatly to the convenience.

This firm has occupied the building for the last quarter of a century and during that time its business has constantly grown and expanded until it requires the entire structure to meet its needs. With the improvements now under way completed, much more room will be available for the retail department while with the new arrangements the wholesale department will also have plenty of room. Everything has been arranged with the idea of a maximum of service with the least trouble, all departments being easily reached.

The plans for the improvements were made by Mr. J. F. Leitner, the architect, of this city, and Mr. J. G. Osterman has the contract. It will require several weeks to complete the work of remodeling.

Mr. D. C. Love, president of the Yates Company, said yesterday that the business of the firm has been much better this year than last and that the future of the firm is bright.

He expressed confidence that the present prosperous condition of the country as a whole is based upon healthy conditions and the fact that he just now is preparing for a larger and bigger business indicates his faith in the future growth of Wilmington.

ARRESTS FOR SEPTEMBER BY POLICE SHOWS DECREASE

Only 139 Fell Into Tolls of the Law During Past Month.

The report of the Department of Public Safety for the month of September shows that law breaking is factually less in Wilmington. The arrests made by the police during September was 139, as against 145 for August. The colored violators of the law greatly outnumbered the whites, a total of 103 colored people getting into the tolls of the law, while 36 whites were registered against only 36 whites.

Larceny proved to be the most popular misdemeanor of the month, 20 persons having yielded to its temptations. Assaults ran next, having figured on the police blotter 18 times. Two of the most gratifying features of the report are that no white men were arrested for violating the prohibition law, and only one for vagrancy.

The complete report follows: Drunk, white 5, colored 10; disorderly conduct, white 5, colored 10; assault, white 4, colored 14; assault with deadly weapon, white 4, colored 3; assault on female, white 0, colored 7; vagrancy, white 1, colored 5; larceny, white 1, colored 19; violation prohibition ordinance, white 0, colored 4; violation driving ordinance, white 3, colored 9; violation tax ordinance, white 19, colored 4; gambling, white 0, colored 11; carrying concealed weapon, white 1, colored 3; housebreaking, white 1, colored 2; criminal assault, white 1, colored 1.

COTTON SIXTEEN CENTS.

Prices on the Wilmington Market Take Another Jump Upward.

Cotton is bringing 16 cents per pound in Wilmington. In all the markets of the country yesterday were recorded prices that reached new high levels, not only for the season but for many years past. And more than ever it seems that predictions of twenty cents for this year's cotton will become a reality ere the advent of the 1917 crop.

Prediction by the government that the crop this year will be less than 12,000,000 bales has had an extremely bullish effect upon the exchanges. On top of this, the cool weather of the past several days over a large part of the cotton belt has added to the uncertainty of the market—and the prices naturally continue to soar.

Receipts here yesterday, according to figures not entirely authentic, were 749 bales, making a total of 34,199 for the season. This compares with receipts on the same date last year of 1,320 bales, or $7,704 for the season.

RECEIVED ENTERTAINMENT.

Immanuel Brotherhood Held Successful Event Last Night.

The Brotherhood of Immanuel Presbyterian church gave an entertainment to its members at the church last night which was largely attended and much enjoyed. Justice B. W. Bornemann entertained the members of the Brotherhood with a number of selections on the accordion, and also made a short address. Judge Bornemann was made a member of the organization.

CITY TAXABLE VALUES SHOW GAIN THIS YEAR

Considerable Gain in Personal Property and Stock in Trade While Corporation Stock Shows Decrease—Comparison.

A net gain of $158,112 in the taxable values of property in the city of Wilmington is shown by the recapitulation which has just been completed by Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer. The total value of all property listed for taxes amounts to $17,370,418 as compared with $17,212,306 for 1915. The assessed revenue for the fiscal year at $1.78 1-2 on the hundred dollar valuation will amount to $310,061.96, of which $6,079.64 is to be applied to the purchase of fire apparatus. The assessed revenue plus the polls will amount to $316,141.60.

There was a slight decrease in the number of polls, for both white and colored, the total for 1916 being 4,478 while for 1915 the total was 4,538. The total number of white polls for this year is 3,195 as compared with 3,223 for 1915, and 1,283 colored as compared with 1,315 for 1915.

The value of real estate shows a gain of $49,525 for the current year while personal property shows a gain of $120,160 and stock in trade was increased by $110,960. There was a decrease in the valuation of corporations and bank stock of $118,861 and a slight loss in money and solvent credits of $3,785.

The comparative statement of the taxable values for this year and last follows:

	1915	1916
Real Estate	$12,128,800	$12,178,438
Personal	890,527	1,010,637

PACKING HOUSE COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES MEMBERS OF TEAMS

Start of Canvassing Postponed and Will be Inaugurated Today.

The make-up of the ten canvassing teams of two men each who will start a whirlwind campaign to secure the remainder of the subscriptions to the capital stock of the Carolina Packing Company, was announced by the committee in charge yesterday and is as follows:

Messrs. W. A. McGirt and I. W. Cooper; W. W. Love and M. W. Jacob; Milton Calder and Geo. F. Galvin; J. W. Yates and J. F. Roache; W. Struthers and Marshall Shrier; D. N. Chadwick and H. M. Owens; Greene Fenley and C. B. Newcomb; J. A. Orrell and Roger Moore; Paul B. Bell and T. James; J. C. Wagner and a team mate to be selected by Mr. Wagner.

The campaign was to have started yesterday but the date was postponed until today on account of the rain. The above teams will make a thorough canvass of the city, while Mr. J. P. Herring and Mr. L. R. Sasser will work in the adjoining counties for the next two weeks.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Only Light Docket Before Recorder Emptied Yesterday Morning.

Mr. M. Abelovitz, charged with the reckless driving of an automobile, in connection with the running down of Abe Smith, colored, a few days ago, was acquitted at yesterday morning's session of the Recorder's court. His interests in court were looked after by L. Clayton Grant, Esq.

The only other cases to come before the Recorder were those of two negroes, B. Y. Green, and Joe Walker. The former was accused of an assault with a deadly weapon, while the latter is alleged to have committed an assault on a female. Judgment was suspended in Green's case on the payment of the costs while Joe was fined $5 and the costs.

DREDGING OPERATIONS

Work Under Engineer's Office Will Be Resumed October 10.

According to an announcement made yesterday by the United States Engineer's office here, dredging operations to maintain the channel on the lower Cape Fear river will be resumed on or about October 10.

The "first dredge" which will be placed in operation will be the "Henry Bacon," the government's big suction dredge. The bucket dredge "Hercules" will also be put in operation about November 1.

In this connection, it was also announced that the restriction on the number of vessels in tow by one tug while passing any dredge is suspended until December 31, inclusive.

NEGRO IS HURT.

Colored Workman at Site of New Custom House Hit by Scantling.

Tom Crawford, colored, a workman employed by the Northeastern Construction Company, in the erection of the new custom house, was seriously injured by a head and face shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when a two by four scantling which was being removed from the old tool house fell and struck the negro.

Owing to the fact that the timber had a number of nails in it several bad lacerations were inflicted. He was removed to his home on Green street by friends after a physician had treated his wounds.

COL. YOUNG WILL SPEAK

State Insurance Commissioner to Make Address on Fire Prevention Day.

Col. James R. Young, State Insurance commissioner, has accepted the invitation to make an address in Wilmington on next Monday at the exercise in observance of Fire Prevention day, according to a telegram received yesterday by Fire Chief Charles Schibben. Colonel Young was extended an invitation several days ago by the committee in charge of the arrangements.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION OPENED LAST NIGHT

Thirty-Fourth Annual Session Meets in Wilmington.

Welcomed by Mayor and Other Prominent Citizens—Dr. Anna A. Gordon Will Be Principal Speaker Tonight.

With practically all the delegates from the various cities in the State in attendance, the 34th annual convention of the North Carolina Woman's Christian Temperance Union was convened in the First Baptist church last night. The State president, Mrs. T. Adelaide Goodno, of Raleigh, presided at the meeting, and the choir of Grace Methodist church sang several beautiful selections during the evening.

While lowering clouds, and a cold, spitting rain kept many away who would otherwise have attended, the audience made up in enthusiasm and interest what it lacked in numbers. There was a fair sprinkling of men in the audience, too, a fact that bore eloquently testimony to the great work that is being done by this organization.

Dr. Anna A. Gordon, of Evanston, Ill., national president of the W. C. T. U., was introduced near the close of the meeting, and made a brief talk, in which she paid a high tribute to the North Carolina division and its achievements. She said that North Carolina had won a great victory in 1905, and that she hoped the entire nation would soon be able to acquit itself as creditably.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Goodno. After the entire assemblage had joined in the singing of a prohibition hymn, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, read the scripture lesson, and led in prayer. Mr. C. C. Covington was then introduced, and made a brief address of welcome in behalf of the Business Men's Anti-Saloon League, of Wilmington.

Mr. Covington said that despite the claims of the liquor interests, made before the days of prohibition, that if whiskey were again legal in Wilmington it would raise the taxes, break down the school system and do other various and sundry injuries to the city, that Wilmington was today in a more prosperous condition than ever before in its history. He paid a high tribute to the W. C. T. U. in general, and also to woman as a character.

Mayor P. Q. Moore, on behalf of the city of Wilmington, next made a brief speech of welcome to the convention. He sketched the battles that were waged at the polls, and the part played by the W. C. T. U. in finally ridding Wilmington and North Carolina from the evil of liquor.

On behalf of the ministers and churches of the city, Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of First Presbyterian church, extended a cordial welcome to the convention. He said that not so many years ago it would have been practically impossible for a W. C. T. U. convention to have prevailed on a mayor, a school superintendent, a business man and a physician to have at their disposal the city hall, the city school system, and Mrs. W. M. Creasy on behalf of the Women's organizations of the city, and Mrs. A. C. Osborne for the local W. C. T. U. The response was made by Mrs. William Boettcher, of Elizabeth City, as the representative of the State division.

Dr. C. L. Pridgen made one of the most interesting addresses of the evening. He said that the work of the doctor and the W. C. T. U. went hand in hand. He told some of his experiences with the victims of alcoholic excess, and read a poem illustrating how the sins of the drunkard are visited on his innocent children. Dr. Pridgen also stated that he regretted the necessity of the W. C. T. U. having a doctor call on them their first day in the city.

The introduction of Dr. Gordon was the last event on the programme before the benediction. The altar of the church was tastefully decorated with huge bows of white ribbon, the Union's official emblem. The balconies also displayed numerous placards bearing the names of the different lines of endeavor, promoted by the W. C. T. U.

It is requested by Miss Annie Chasten that all of the school children of the city be in attendance at the Thursday evening service. It is desired that the children be massed on the right side of the balcony, and sing America for the benefit of the convention.

The Y. W. C. A. will serve luncheon for the visiting delegates at the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium today, and tomorrow at 12:30 p. m. All the visitors are expected to gather here for luncheon.

The programme for today's session is as follows:

Rotary Club's Committee to Appear Before City Council.

With a view to putting a crimp in the operations of persons who come to Wilmington to employ negroes for work in Northern cities, the committee appointed at the last meeting of the Rotary Club, of which Capt. Edward P. Bailey is chairman, will probably appear before the City Council this morning to urge that the license tax be increased to $1,000 a day.

So far, the city has never been able to collect the present tax of $100 imposed by a recent ordinance. Heretofore the Northern employers of local labor have complied with the law as to the payment of the revenue taxes levied by county and State, but the only attempt to collect the $100 license tax levied by the city proved unsuccessful.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't

Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones.

Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, causes it to break it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

NAROBIA GUARANTEED FURS

ALL the new Narobia Furs are here—more beautifully lustrous, more charmingly fashioned than ever before. This season you will notice that every Narobia Muff and Neckpiece is still more pronounced in its wondrous lynx-like effect. And what must not be overlooked is the little yellow Narobia tag on every Narobia garment—the tag which says:

"Narobias are Guaranteed For Color, Style and Wear"

Which means that Narobia's color is "night-black" fast; that the style is up to the tick-o-the-clock; and that the hair will not pull out owing to the special (and secret) Narobia Process.

M.

A delightful surprise party was given last evening to Miss Vivian Montgomery, at her home on North Ninth street, in honor of her sixteenth birthday. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents from her unexpected guests. Numerous games were played, among which was a contest game. Miss Lucile Moore, and Mr. Richard Thigpen were the winners in this contest. After the games refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses Rosa Badon, Eloise Powers, Elizabeth Tate, Lucile Moore, and Messrs. Robert Snaken.

The program for the banquet has been arranged by a committee of which Mr. J. W. Rutland is chairman, and will consist of addresses by the guests of honor and several members of the Reserve Corps of the W. L. I. Representatives of the various civic and commercial organizations of the city have been invited to attend the banquet.

At the monthly business meeting of the W. L. I. held last night at the armory the only matter of importance discussed was the subject of securing a Maine memorial tablet for the armory.

The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements, if practicable, for securing the tablet: Messrs. G. T. Swain, J. H. Fargar and W. K. Gaylor.

REVENUE OFFICER KENNEDY CAPTURES TWO STILL.

Local Officer Makes Successful Raid Near Goldsboro and Mt. Olive. Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue J. R. Kennedy returned yesterday from a raid in which he and two other officers participated which resulted in the capture of two illicit stills, one seven miles west of Goldsboro and one about the same distance west of Mt. Olive.

The still near Goldsboro was captured and destroyed about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Its capacity was 220 gallons, and was used for making grape, apple and cane brandies as well as for whiskey. A considerable quantity of intoxicants in various stages of fermentation was found and destroyed.

It was located in what is known as the Moccasin Swamp section, and three men who are believed to have been the operators, were found in the vicinity.

The still near Mt. Olive was located near Odum's mill pond and was of 60 gallons capacity. This outfit was raided Sunday night and a man, who is believed to have been its operator, was placed under arrest.

BAPTISTS CONVEGE AT WALLACE

Wilmington Baptist Association Holds Annual Meeting Today. All roads lead to Wallace today, where the Wilmington Baptist convention meets for its annual convention. Many members of the Baptist congregations in the city are expected to attend in addition to the regular delegates.

Thirty-four churches and six counties will be represented at the convention, and Wallace is expected to be the entertainment of approximately 1,000 visitors. Mr. George E. Leftwich, moderator, of Wilmington, will preside over the meeting and addresses will be made by various ministers.

MR. NOE DECLINES CALL

The program for the banquet has been arranged by a committee of which Mr. J. W. Rutland is chairman, and will consist of addresses by the guests of honor and several members of the Reserve Corps of the W. L. I. Representatives of the various civic and commercial organizations of the city have been invited to attend the banquet.

At the monthly business meeting of the W. L. I. held last night at the armory the only matter of importance discussed was the subject of securing a Maine memorial tablet for the armory.

The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements, if practicable, for securing the tablet: Messrs. G. T. Swain, J. H. Fargar and W. K. Gaylor.

SPLENDID LYCEUM COURSE GUARD TO DEPART SOON

Seven Attractions to Appear in City Under Auspices of Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Church.

Owing to the fact that there will be but one lyceum course in Wilmington this winter, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church has contracted for a more expensive one than ever before, seven attractions having been booked for the coming season. The seating capacity of Memorial Hall in which the attractions will appear is limited to 400 and patrons, therefore, are urged to call either Mr. L. G. Hicks or Mr. H. C. Morrison at the office of James & James for reservations. Many season tickets have already been sold.

The Strollers Quartette will be the first company of the season, will appear on Monday, October 9th. This company was organized in 1906, and made its first appearance in towns and cities along the Pacific coast. Since that time it has been practically one of every state in the Union. Only one change has been made in its personnel since its organization.

Ross Crane, former president of the International Lyceum Association, says: "The Strollers are unquestionably one of the leading quartettes, both in their singing organization and in their specialty and entertaining features."

The Hawaiian Singers and Players will be one of the exceptional features of the season in the lyceum line. The repertoire of the quartette includes the songs of Hawaii, sung in the native tongue, many of the popular airs of the country, and classical and operatic numbers. The entire company appears in native dress. One tribute to the popularity of this performance is the fact that the talking machine companies are finding great difficulty in supplying the demands for Hawaiian music in record form, both instrumental and vocal.

Daveny Festival Quintette in the "Bohemian Girl," give a program ranging from the old folk songs to grand opera, including Irish, negro, and Scotch folk songs, extracts from operas, duets, trios, and quartettes. From the operas, such as Faust, Rigoletto, Lohengrin and Lucia. For the present season, this organization will give the "Bohemian Girl" in costume.

This splendid opera needs no introduction to the public, as it is one of the grand operas that has stood the test of time. In addition to the operatic numbers, a short miscellaneous programme will be given.

The Hampton Court Singers were organized to fill a district need of the platform. The exceptional vogue of the grand opera during the past few seasons has resulted in a very general turning toward that type of music for the greater part of the platform offering of mixed quartette companies. This has resulted in the practical abandonment of much of the best music aside from the operatic. Each member of this company is an artist, competent in voice and histrionic ability to give expression to the music festival.

The Caveny Programme is a blending of the arts of painting, sculpture and music. It is presented in such a way as to instruct and inspire, and do it in a manner so charming that the evening is one of delightful entertainment. The following testimonial is to their credit: "Have entertained several times at Hull House and always to the delight of our people," Jane Adams.

In the Chimes of Normandy, is presented one of the best comic operas of its kind available on the Lyceum platform. Produced in its entirety, with an excellent cast, this company is composed of 12 splendid artists, all trained to their respective parts with a wonderful exactness.

Marlo & Company, magicians, is composed of four people, who during their many years of experience have traveled in America, England, Ireland, Wales and practically every land of English speaking tongue. An idea of their completeness may be had by the fact that they carry nearly an entire carload of baggage.

A season ticket to the entire seven numbers may be had for $2.50, while they last. Only one limited capacity, only 400 can be sold.

The forecast for this section is rain today and northeast winds, while fair weather is promised for Thursday. In other words, Wilmingtonians may expect to get about the same brand of weather today that they had yesterday.

Forecast for Wilmington and Vicinity Indicates Rain—Fair Thursday.

Although there were no indications that the South Atlantic storm disturbances had increased in intensity, the local Weather Bureau office received from Washington late last night instructions to continue its storm warnings until further notice. The storm was reported as being central off the Georgia coast late last night and moving slowly north. Strong northeast winds of almost gale force may be expected today, according to the Washington office of the Weather Bureau.

Wilmington and Charlotte Engineer Companies Included in Movement to Mexican Border.

Both the Wilmington and Charlotte engineer companies, the only remaining units of the North Carolina National Guard in the State, are specifically named as being included in the new movement of State troops now in mobilization camps who have been ordered to proceed to the Mexican border. They with the other units of the National Guard will take the places of the various organizations which have been patrolling the border and who have now been ordered to return to their home stations.

Capt. George Gillette, as ranking field officer of companies A and B, will be in command of the Tar Heel troops, included in the order to go to the border. Captain Gillette, who had been in the city on a short furlough, returned to Camp Glenn yesterday afternoon. The Wilmington boys have been long expected, and will welcome the order which will assure them of seeing service on the Mexican border. While the order made public yesterday by Secretary of War Baker does not state the exact date for the new movement of troops to the border, it does say that they will be sent to the border "in the immediate future."

TO VISIT WILMINGTON IN INTEREST OF ST. MARY'S

Osborne, of Charlotte, recently appointed special representative of the trustees of St. Mary's School, in Raleigh, to conduct a campaign for the $250,000 fund for building improvements and endowment, will be in Wilmington on Friday of this week. Dr. Osborne was in Wilmington some time ago when he conferred with a number of those interested in the school.

The purpose of his visit Friday is to hold conference at which plans will be made for raising funds in this city. This conference will be held at the parish house of St. James' Episcopal church on Friday night at 8 o'clock.

NEGRO SEEMS TO RECOVER FIVE THOUSAND FOR INJURIES

George Simpson Alleges That He Wasn't Warned of Firing of Blast.

George Simpson, colored, has instituted suit in Superior Court in New Hanover against the Harris Granite Quarries Company, alleging that he had three toes broken and suffered other injuries on July 26th because while working in a quarry near Neversen, N. C., he was not warned that a blast was to be fired. He asks in his complaint that the defendant pay him $5,000 because of these alleged injuries which he claims he sustained because of the negligence of the superintendent in charge of the quarry. THEATRICAL

The fair crowds who braved the disagreeable weather to see the Victoria show yesterday was the best indication in the world that the people have been talking about the great show put on there Monday by the American company. It is undoubtedly the best musical comedy show ever presented at that theatre and should draw capacity business all the week.

Today a brand new show, with all new specialties, goes on, and it is a distinct novelty in that it is a genuine musical comedy production in three acts, three scenes, with entirely different scenery for each act. "In Happyland" is the title and it features as comedians Raymond Lewis, Earl Root and Scottie Freidell, with Elsie and Lillian Ziegler, Pauline Glenmar and all the rest of the bunch who put Monday's show over so big.

Opening medley special by the entire company is followed by "Quaker Town," by Elsie Ziegler, who sang "There's Someone More Lonesome Than You" in the first show. Ray Lewis puts over that great 1916 hit, "He May Be Old But He's Got Young Ideas," in a manner which has never been seen here before. Pauline Glenmar presents another great dance novelty even better than her Whirlwind Dance, and Lillian Ziegler follows with "Some Girls Do and Some Girls Don't," another great hit of the year on Broadway.

Then comes the treat in Scottie Freidell's presentation of that great hit, "Where Did Robinson Crusoe Go," assisted by the chorus.

During the second scene Lillian Root presents her great clog dance specialty and Lewis and Root put on another singing and dancing sketch. The third scene, an "Old Time After Piece," starts with "Cider Time" following with "They Called It Dixieland" and several other big hits. The costumes for this bill are the prettiest yet seen and the show runs for something like an hour and fifteen minutes.

Rare Treat at Grand.
The Grand has indeed a rare treat for patrons of that photoplay theatre today in the presentation of that brilliant photoplay star, Jackie Saunders, the brilliant star of "The Grip of Evil" in a great three-reel Knickerbocker star feature, "A Child of the West," three reels of lively romance and thrills intermixed with some strong heart interest touches.

Jackie, as a Tomboy, makes lively scenes in the West, where she lives the early part of her young life. She is the terror of every cowboy on the range and makes sport with all of them, always pulling some unexpected joke at their expense. This part is especially pleasing in its comedy touches. Transplanted to the East, she picks up the threads of a broken romance and wins where society peers fall in her choice of good husbands.

Jackie Saunders in the romantic and dramatic portions of this drama is all that could be desired. Then in the comedy touches, she leaves the impression that she was born for this kind of a role. It is a feature you don't want to miss.

There will be another great feature in today's bill, a comedy that will make the usual length show, and all for five cents.

And don't forget that Charlie Chaplin comes in the greatest comedy he ever made, "One A. M.," on Saturday.

Essanay Favorites at Bijou.
Today the Bijou presents that delayed feature which was scheduled for yesterday, a great two-reel Essanay drama, the very latest feature starring beautiful Marguerite Clayton, supported by Sidney Alinsworth and all-star support, including John Lorens and many other great Essanay favorites.

Beautiful Marguerite Clayton, besides appearing in big V. L. S. E. features, finds time to get a great regular programme picture across every now and then and today is one of those rare treats. A young convict, so the story goes, is made guardian of a young orphan child. When the girl-child is grown the convict is a respected man of affairs but is persecuted and blackmailed by a man who knows his past. A marriage between the ward of the ex-convict and a pal of the blackmailer is thwarted, and a pardon from the Governor for the escaped man leads the ward to want to be more to her guardian than a ward. It's a beautiful romance done in typical Essanay style.

Ivy Close, the famous English beauty who was imported by Kalem, said to be the most beautiful woman in pictures.

MAY BE ACTOR'S BRIDE.
There is a rumor that Phyllis Neilson-Terry, niece of the famous Terry, and for years with Sir Herbert Tree's company at His Majesty's theatre, London, has become the bride of Cecil King, the English actor. The wedding is said to have taken place at the office of the British Consul, New Orleans. Miss Terry and Mr. King were travelling together with a vaudeville sketch, in which she was playing, with Mr. King as stage director. He was with Miss Terry for some time at His Majesty's and came to this country later with Tree, playing in "The Adventure of Lady Urquhart" and "Tribby."

BIG INCREASE IN IMPORTS.
Influx of Foreign Tobacco Swells Receipts—Exports Fall.
That Wilmington is growing in importance as a seaport, is evidenced by the fact that the figures recorded for imports received during the month of September exceeded even the high water mark of August. There was a difference of more than $30,000 in the figures for August and September. The total amount for August was $95,000, while in the month just closed the figures approximate $129,000.

Exports, however, fell off a little from the record made last September when the total exports amounted to $2,000,000 as against $1,152,235 for the September just closed. One reason given for the great increase in imports is the fact that an enormous amount of foreign tobacco is received for use in the factories at Winston-Salem and Durham.

The story of two sisters, orphaned, compelled to face the world alone. They are taken advantage of by an unscrupulous doctor, but saved by a manly young fellow from the West. An inspiring and fascinating story. Produced by Paragon.

That, in short, is theme of the most powerful World-Brady feature yet released, "The Almighty Dollar," which is today's big feature at the Royal starring in the leading role that strong dramatic star, E. K. Lincoln, co-starring with the noted screen beauty, Francis Neilson.

It is a photoplay of unusual tenacity with tense and exciting scenes all the way through, and is presented with the guarantee that you will consider it one of the very greatest features of the year.

This is a film drama combining all the thrills and sensation of a melodrama, yet is not one of those impossible ultra-melodramas, a sensible, story well acted, correctly directed and properly staged. Scenario by E. M. Ingleton, directed by Robert Thornby at the Paragon studio.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS Government Has Large Number of Attractive Positions to Offer.
The United States Civil Service Commission announces a large number of examinations for positions offering attractive salaries which will be held in Wilmington during this and next month. NEAR SMASH-UP ON STREET Light Ford Truck Hit By Trolley Car on South Front Street Yesterday.
While trying to pass an automobile parked near the northeast corner of Front and Market streets a light Ford truck while going north on Front street was overtaken by a street car and jammed between the street car and the automobile at the curb yesterday afternoon. Fortunately the motorman in charge of the car had it under control and only light damage resulted to the truck.

"This is one case in point demonstrating the folly of repealing the traffic ordinance prohibiting the parking of automobiles on Front street," a witness of the accident declared last night. "Perhaps when some serious accident results in the loss of life," he added, "our City Council will realize the necessity of keeping the congested portion of Front street as free as possible of vehicles standing idle for any long periods of time."

Straws Show—

Motorists buy a certain make of tires for the first time because it is sold to them—through advertising, salesmanship, or the good words of satisfied users.

But motorists continue to buy that make of tire only because the first tires have made good—have given satisfactory mileage and service.

Motorists bought United States Tires so consistently that, during the first seven and one-half months of this year, we sold and delivered more tires than during the entire twelve months of last year.

And motorists are continuing to buy United States Tires at the same phenomenal rate.

If straws show which way the wind blows, such phenomenal sales increases certainly show where the best tire service comes from.

GOVERNOR CRAIG NOW IS BACK IN RALEIGH

Has Spent Several Weeks at His New Asheville Home.

Commissioner Graham Hopes Frost
Has Been Delayed—Soldiers' Home Under New Management—Southport Firm Chartered.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3.—Governor Craig has returned to Raleigh after several weeks spent at his new home recently completed in Asheville and is taking up again the threads of official duties in the executive offices where his private secretary, Miss May F.
Jones, has been in charge in his absence. Mrs. Craig, George Craig and Master Locke Craig, Jr., returned with the governor and George Craig is to take up the duties of executive clerk to the governor for the remainder of the Craig administration, which terminates in January. George Craig is a licensed lawyer and is to be the junior member of the Craig law firm to take up practice in Asheville as soon as the governor lays aside the duties of governor.

Hopes Frost Is Delayed.
Commissioner of Agriculture W. A.
Graham is very much in hopes now that there had been a considerable rise in temperature, that there will not be frost in this section before the latter days of October. He says that October 15 is about the average time for frost, but that it has been as early as October 7. He believes that there are possibly fifteen or twenty days more for the fall crops to grow before frost terminates the growing season.
Out at the Soldier's Home the new officers succeeding Capt. and Mrs. W. S.
Lineberry have taken up their duties.
They are D. H. Milton, superintendent, and Mrs. Milton, matron. Capt. and Mrs. Lineberry leave at once for their old home in Rowan county where Capt. Lineberry has a valuable plantation.

Three Charters Granted.

The Kash Korner (Inc.), of Southport, capital $10,000 authorized and $2-000 subscribed by G. H. Ruark, B. R.
Ruark and B. J. Holder for general mercantile business, including dry goods and groceries.
The Haywood Garage Co., of Asheville, capital $50,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by Paul Roebbing, Thomas A. Jones and R. R. Williams for garage, automobile and real estate development business.

WATER-GROUND MEAL A CURE FOR PELLAGRA, SAYS DR. WOOD
Wilmington Physician Addresses
Sampson County Medical Society.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Clinton, N. C., Oct. 3.—The old-fashioned water-ground meal is not only harmless but a cure for pellagra, said Dr. E. J. Wood, of Wilmington, in an address here yesterday before the Sampson County Medical Society. Only the highly milled meal and wheat, in which the heart of the grain has been extracted, are capable of causing the disease, said he, and this was pointed out that the use of baking powder without the addition of buttermilk as a counteracting agent, was a factor in destroying a very important constituent of the grain. Dr. Wood's remedy for pellagra is entirely dietary, and he reports gratifying success with it. He has made considerable study of this disease, both in the United States and abroad, and is considered an authority on it.

SUICIDAL ATTEMPT FAILED

Ed. Hassell, of Kinston, in Hospital
With Bullet in His Head.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Kinston, N. C., Oct. 3.—Ed. Hassell, about 30 years of age, an engineer, in a hospital here with a bullet lodged in the cavity behind his right eye as the result of what the police say was an attempt to suicide. Hassell is well connected. According to the police version Hassell, in company with two other youths, entered the house of Thelma Earle, at 110 West Shine street, spent a short time in the place in a friendly way, and in a sudden fit of despondency picked up a revolver of medium calibre, the property of one of his companions, and fired a bullet into his head in the vicinity of the right temple. He laid for two hours, it is said, before a physician was procured.
He had been drinking, according to a doctor. The police, accepting the attempted suicide theory, say there was no woman in the case. There has been no arrest. Hassell may recover. He stands a chance of losing the right eye should he get well.

BUILDING BOOM AT CLINTON.

Mrs. Susan Boon, Aged Sampson Lady, Kills a Large Snake.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Clinton, N. C., Oct. 3.—Clinton has a young building boom on right now. A number of handsome residences are in the course of erection, a handsome business building is almost completed and another large one planned for the near future. The buildings on the fair grounds lack only a few days of completion.
Nothing daunted by the weight of her years or by her womanly fears, Mrs. Susan Boon, a Sampson county lady 75 years old, killed one of the largest snakes seen in the county this year, according to a story that was brought to town yesterday. The snake was of the dangerous variety known as the "sting" or "horned" snake, and measured five feet, six inches in length.
Mrs. Boon's attention was called to the snake and immediately she went after it with a stick, killing it after much effort.

MAXWELL 'COMES BACK' AT CANDIDATE LINNEY

Issues Statement Written Before
"Whistle Blowed" for Work.

Again Challenges the Republican Nominee to Consider the Facts As to the Cost of Running the State Government.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3.—A. J. Maxwell, secretary to the Corporation Commission, gave out today the following statement with reference to criticisms passed on him yesterday by Frank Linney, the Republican candidate for governor:

"To the Editor:
"I see by the papers that Mr. Linney, Republican candidate for governor, submitted some observations with reference to my political and legal researches in his speech in the court, in Raleigh, yesterday. I will not use much of the "State's time" in answering. It is too obviously obvious that Mr. Linney's displeasure with me is that I have, rather than that I have not, been on the job, and upset some several of his misrepresentations of the department with which I am connected, and of our State government.
If, however, it should be admitted that the State pays me a salary to keep up with efforts of Republican (would-be) statesmen to mislead the people with respect to the Democratic State government, I still and again invite Mr.
Linney's consideration of the main fact which he has brought in issue, to-wit:
That while he seeks to mislead the people into believing that we have an extravagant State government the official fact still remains unchallenged that the State may waste some money on my salary) that the average cost of government in this State to its citizens is less than the average cost of government to the citizens of any other state in the United States. And I invite Mr. Linney to get his attention away from that decoy drove of par-tides long enough to reconcile his false charge with this fact.
"If Mr. Linney is not prepared to deny that we are maintaining a progressive State government for a less cost to the citizen than any other State it might be good business for the State to hire some one to defend it against those who are trying to fool the people into believing that it is extravagant and against a party that has never lost an opportunity to despoil it.
"Entering a demurrer to Mr. Linney's counter-charge, and pleading the main issue, I am, "Yours very truly,
"A. J. MAXWELL.

"P. S.—This was written before the whistle blown this a. m."

WORK ON THE GIBSON LINE BEING PUSHED IN EARNEST Entire Railroad From Hamlet to Gibson Being Rebuilt.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Hamlet, N. C., Oct. 3.—Hamlet is a lively place these days. The construction work on the rebuilding the Gibson branch railroad has begun in earnest, and several hundred hands are employed. The entire ten miles from Hamlet to Gibson is to be rebuilt, and the hills to be cut through. It is not generally known that the sand hills are really hills. In some places cuts at least 40 feet deep are made,
and at other places fills of the same depth have to be made to build the road without heavy grades. The maximum grade will be one-half of one percent. For about four miles the hills extend, and then the country at once becomes nearly level, and from there to Savannah there are very few deep cuts.

OFFICIALLY OPENED YESTERDAY
There Was Representative Attendance
From Over East Carolina.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Rocky Mount, N. C., Oct. 3.—With a representative attendance from over Eastern Carolina, Rocky Mount's Maiden Fair was officially opened this morning at 11 o'clock. President W. E. Fenner, while there was an escorting parade, including two bands, which journeyed from the city with the official party.
Everything was in readiness for the opening day and with the agricultural exhibits a matter of much favorable comment thousands are expected to visit the floral halls and to inspect the work of the schools, boys and girls' clubs and the prize products of the farmers from over one of the richest agricultural sections of the State.
The machinery exhibit has far overrun the capacity of the mammoth housing sheds, while the live stock and cattle exhibits are all that could be asked for a fair many seasons old. The Eastern Carolina Poultry Show in the mammoth barn constructed especially for them has over 1,500 birds on dis-

SHORTAGE OF CARS
Hundreds of Bales of Cotton at La Grange Awaiting Shipment.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Kinston, N. C., Oct. 3.—Hundreds of bales of cotton are stacked up on the railroad yard at LaGrange awaiting cars to haul it away, another evidence of prosperity in this section, which is experiencing the shortage of cars in no small degree. LaGrange, with less than 2,000 population, has become one of the leading markets in East Carolina for the staple, and the business men of the place are boosting it to the skies. Higher prices are being paid there, they claim, than in many of the larger towns, and the number of bales being sold will compare favorably with the record of any place of several times the size in the section.

REAL HAIR SAVER

Found at Last. Shows Results in Three Days, Says Local Druggist.
If you are rapidly losing your hair and fear baldness, R. R. Bellamy invites you to make a three days' test of Parisian Sage. If it does not stop the excessive loss of hair and keep your hair and scalp look and feel at least 100 per cent better, they will return your money.

Hundreds of men and women have written telling of the phenomenal results obtained by using Parisian Sage.
People who were bald say they now glory in their beautiful hair. Others who have had dandruff for years say they got a clean, healthy scalp after just a few applications of this splendid treatment.

No matter whether you are bothered with falling hair, prematurely gray hair, dry, dull and brittle hair, oily, greasy, stringy hair, dandruff or itching scalp, this well known local firm invites you to try Parisian Sage at their risk. If it succeeds the cost is trifling, and should it fail the cost is nothing. No string or red tape to this money-back offer. If your hair is worth saving, Parisian Sage is worth trying, and a large bottle is inexpensive at your favorite drug or toilet counter.

ANOTHER RISE IN COTTON

General List Closed at Advance of 4 to 10 Points With January at 16.50 and Spot at 16.70.

New York, Oct. 3.—The cotton market was much less active today but early declines were followed by rallies with January selling up from 16.60 to 16.94 and closing at 16.80. The general list closed steady at a net advance of 4 to 10 points for the day. There was a renewal of scattered realizing at the start and the opening was irregular at an advance of 8 points to a decline of 3 points, near months being relatively firm. Prices eased off with December selling down to 16.60 and March to 16.84, or about 35 to 40 points under yesterday's high records. The market soon turned firmer. Trading was comparatively quiet at the beginning of the rally, but became more active as prices worked higher, while the support seemed to become more aggressive, owing to the continued failure of Southern offerings to materialize on an important scale, at 16.50 for December and 17.11 for March or about 27 to 30 points above the low level of the morning, realizing was more active and closing prices showed reactions of some 14 or 15 points from the best. The afternoon advance was probably promoted by reports of an active spot demand in the Southern markets.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, Oct. 3.—While trade was not particularly active, cotton oil ruled firm on support from local professionals, inspired by the strength of kindred commodities and light crude offerings. Final prices were 4 to 7 points net higher. Sales 23,500 barrels. Close firm. Spot 10.80 to 11.00; October 10.75 to 10.80; November 10.48 to 10.50; December 10.46 to 10.47; January 10.45 to 10.46; February 10.51 to 10.55; March 10.63 to 10.64; April 10.65 to 10.70; May 10.70 to 10.75.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—Cotton made some show of steadiness on the market today, but was invariably met by heavy liquidation from realizing longs and the close was at a net gain of only one point. At the topmost levels the market was 17 to 18 points over yesterday's close and at one time liquidation was heavy enough to put prices eight points under yesterday's last quotation. The market opened at the advance in the face of poor cables and stood 3 to 5 points up on the first call. Almost immediately it reacted to lower levels and toward the middle of the morning it was at its lowest. Fear of a change for the worse in weather conditions, signs of a larger export movement and reports of a good spot demand over the South generally, gradually increased the demand and brought about an upward movement which was maintained until the early afternoon. In the last half hour of business prices sagged under the offer of traders on the long side who wanted to even up before the close.

Closing bid: October 16.01; December 16.27; January 16.43; March 16.44; May 16.84.

Spot cotton firm and unchanged; sales on the spot 3,880 bales; to arrive 4,625 bales; middling 16.00.

Demand Is Animated and Strong. Yesterday's Trading Again Well Beyond Million Share Mark.

New York, Oct. 3.—Today's market operations again attained a total well beyond the million share mark. A very large proportion of the whole was contributed in the final hour.

Much of the market's stability was derived from the increased demand for rails, which displayed animation and strength.

The Canadian group, grangers, cotton carriers and eastern lines, were 1 to almost 5 points up at their best, coalers losing some of the prominence, although Norfolk and Western made a new record on its further advance to 140 1-2. These were accompanied by gains of 3 to 4 points in International Paper, common and preferred and American Writing Paper preferred.

Coppers and Mexicans were among the most variable issues of the forenoon, but hardened in final dealings with United States Steel, that stock recovering from 115-12 to 118 7-8, but closing at 117 1-2, a slight net loss.

General Motors furnished another maximum on its nine point advance to 75, with gains of 5 and 9 points, respectively, for South Porto Rico sugar and General Chemical. Extreme gains in the more active stocks were shaded 1 to 2 points at the end. Total sales were 1,146,000 shares.

Bonds were firm to strong, total sales, par value, $6,135,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

From this general committee, the club decided to appoint sub-committees, upon motion of Mr. W. B. Cooper, to be named by the executive committee with respect to their location in different parts of the city and county. This will be done and the committees or teams announced later.

President McGirt, in the interim of the transaction of other business, introduced J. C. Wright, Esq., who has recently returned to the city from Clinton, N. C. He referred to the Wilmington spirit, told of why Wilson should be considered the man of the hour and indulged in a few little pleasantries about the Republicanism of Sampson county but of the loyalty of the Democrats of that part of the country. He was given an enthusiastic reception by the club.

State Senator W. B. Cooper, upon introduction next by Mr. McGirt, made a practical talk, frankly admitting that the party made errors but the good it had accomplished much more than counterbalanced the harm that it possibly has done. To err was human with parties not less than with individuals. Taking the good and bad as we have gone along, the speaker said that reason dictated that we should continue to be good Democrats and that while the fight is in progress, it should be fought all the harder and victory would again come to the Democracy. He referred to a trip recently taken North and told of some of the difficulties of the campaign that is ahead and explained why it was necessary to combat these difficulties with all the force possible. He was proud to be a North Carolinian at home and away from home. He referred to Carolina's distinguished men in the National administration and knew from the "knocks" they are receiving from the enemy, they are the men who are doing things.

Mr. McGirt next introduced Col. Walker Taylor, Collector of Customs, who got down to bed rock at the beginning and told why Wilson had made the people a part of the administration. He had brought the government to them and they to the government. He detailed an argument he had with some Hartford, Conn., friends at a recent meeting. He told them of how they had charged Cleveland with being responsible for the panic that occurred during his administration and he challenged them now to take the reverse situation and give Wilson credit for the peace and prosperity that the country was enjoying. He told of contributions carried to the minds of several with whom he talked and he explained in this connection the need of a campaign of education in doubtful states and territories. He believed it impossible to defeat Wilson if the people are placed in possession of the facts.

He told of how recently it had been possible to bring a million dollars worth of imports through North Carolina's port at Wilmington instead of having these imports handled through and credited to New York and used by the latter city as a basis for its claims upon the government as the amount of business done, whereas Wilmington and North Carolina were entitled to it.

Resolutions Are Adopted.
The chairman suggested the propriety of passing resolutions endorsing President Wilson and the administration and upon motion Messrs. J. C. Wright, Hugh MacRae, W. B. Cooper, Marsden Bellamy and Geo. C. Jackson were named to prepare a suitable paper to this effect.

While this committee was about its work, upon invitation, J. A. McNorton, Esq., made a ringing address on fundamental principles of the parties, declaring that it was not necessary in any sense to defend the record of the present administration. His speech was well received.

Graham Kennan, Esq., upon being called upon by the chairman, responded with a vigorous defense of Wilson and Wilson's policies, detailing some of the constructive work of the administration and answering most effectively some criticisms of the Wilson domestic and foreign policies. Mr. Kennan threw increased enthusiasm into the meeting by his short but vigorous speech which was straight to the point and with a punch. He captivated his audience in half a dozen sentences and advised the club that work and not platitudes is needed in the present emergency.

C. C. Cashwell, Esq., secretary of the local Democratic executive committee, was asked to say a word in behalf of the importance of registration and of the importance in the general election, His

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

too, was a speech straight off the bat and of the hammer and tonga variety that set his audience to thinking and coming to a resolve that will bear fruit on election day.

Marsden Bellamy, Esq., read the report of the Resolutions Committee, a copy of which will be forwarded to the President at Shadow Lawn, N. J., and a copy to the National Democratic Committee. The resolutions follow: "Whereas, our President of the United States is the best the United States has had since Lincoln, and whereas, 'Wilmington feels an especial interest in him because of his former residence here and because of the part Wilmington played in helping to elect him, and,

"Whereas, under his guidance and leadership, Congress has enacted more remedial legislation than ever before in a like time and has passed: "1. A Rural Credits law by which the farmers can buy and improve their farms on long-term loans at a reasonable interest rate, and can, therefore, do up-to-date farming on a large scale and with improved methods; "2. A currency law which has stopped the Nation's currency going through the hands of a few men in New York, and has distributed it wherever the business of the country needs it, has made it elastic and forever stopped a money panic.

"3. A tariff act which is framed to produce revenue for the government and not for protection; "4. An income and inheritance tax law which provides that the burdens of government shall be borne by those most able to bear them, and that he who inherits great wealth shall pay a small part of it to the government; "5. The Federal Reserve Bank, which has been established and by whose protection it is secure, Justice Hughes' opposition to an income tax law notwithstanding.

"And, whereas, he has kept us out of war with Mexico, and has kept us out of the European war with honor, now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the Woodrow Wilson Club of Wilmington, N. C. That we indifferently pledge our unqualified support and loyal active aid in securing the reelection of Woodrow Wilson as President of the United States, Scholar, Statesman, Diplomat of World Politics, and the Greatest Living American."

Many Contributions.
Although not contemplated at the outset, at the suggestion of several, it was decided to once open the subscriptions to the National campaign funds and cards already in use by the State Finance Committee were distributed and after they were taken up a short while later, it was found that the amount named above had been subscribed for the purposes named. Other cards will be printed at once and placed in the hands of the local teams who will see that the county and city people have an opportunity of subscribing to the fund so badly needed at the present time. Contributions may be made to any officer or member of the executive committee of the club in the event one member of the teams has called and these will be not only acknowledged from day to day in the newspapers, but they will be acknowledged with a receipt from National headquarters. The Star, in behalf of the committee, will be glad to receive and acknowledge any amounts that may be contributed in or out of the city. Subscriptions to be most effective should be made at once.

The Meeting Adjourns.
After having been in session a little over two hours the meeting last night adjourned and the various committees named will at once get busy and see that Wilmington and New Hanover do their full share between now and election.

DR. THAMES TAKES CHARGE.
Winston-Salem's New Health Officer in Active Control.

Dr. John Thames, former assistant health officer of New Hanover, has taken the oath of office as health officer of Winston-Salem. Dr. Thames arrived in the Twin City on Saturday afternoon and took the prescribed oath of office Monday before Clerk O. O. Tesh, of the municipal court.

Dr. Thames has settled right down to work and is rapidly getting the affairs of his office in working order. One of the first acts of his administration was to receive reports from the inspectors of the city schools. With his little staff of health officers, he is temporarily stopping at the Hotel Zinsendorf.

FISH NURSE TO BABY MUSSEL.
Infancy of Potential Buttons Spent on Gills of Godmothers.

portant button-making mussels have been determined, and it is the province of the laboratory to provide those fishes and have them inoculate themselves by swimming in tanks or ponds in which the spawning mussels have been placed. When a fish is sufficiently infected, it is turned loose in the river, and in a few weeks the young mussels, having attained a proper development, become detached from the gills, fall to the bottom of the stream and begin their independent existence.

MR. SPRUNT BUYS HOME

Mrs. Jessie Kennan Wins Her Home on Nun Street.

Mr. T. Edward Sprunt has purchased from Mrs. Jessie Kennan the residence at No. 110 Nun street, formerly used as a home by the latter before she recently moved to Carolina Heights. The consideration was not named, but it was understood to have been in excess of $10,000. The residence is one of the most valuable in that section of the city.

Mrs. Wins early in the year purchased the handsome home of Mr. E. C. Holt, at Carolina Heights, which she has remodeled so that it is now one of the most attractive in that suburb.
